Flying Ray Davises Visit Parents, William Hylands

A happy Father's Day weekend was spent at the William A. Hyland home on Telegraph road. Daughter Kathy, now Mrs. Ray Davis and her husband flew home in their own plane. The Davises have lived in Kansas City since their Thanksgiving marriage in Las Vegas last year. Mr. Davis uses his plane in his business and Kathy is also learning to fly.

A buffet dinner party for 12 honored Mr. and Mrs. Donald Selby of Pittsburgh June 16. The party was given by Mr. and Mrs. James Traa in their home on Jackson Park lane.

The Charles Hellemans of Bradford drive, Westchester, were hosts to her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kuhn of Baltimore, and two of their children, Patty and Kathy.

The guests arrived Sunday and until they left the following Thursday, they had a thorough tour of Detroit and the area. Mr. Kuhn is an automotive machanic in Baltimore and the family never before have visited here.

June 18 was the mutual birthday of Terre and Robbi Wink who celebrated with a party. Metallic sand pails in bright colors and balloon faces decorated the table. Children invited were Elise Boudreau, Christy Reason, Jennifer Henderson, all of Old Mill road, and Laurie Kramb of Chula Vista drive.

Terre, 5, and Robbi, 3, are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wink of Old Mill road.
