Mrs. Herman Pravel gave a coffee to introduce Mrs. Dyman to all the ladies in the block.

The guest of honor's mother, Mrs. Shelley, visiting from White Plains, N. Y., also attended. Original from New York city, the Dyman family have been living in Royal Oak this past year.

Joann Kuerst from Indianapolis has been a house guest at the Neesham home visiting with Janet.

BROWNIE TROOP 687
Last week, Brownie troop 687 gathered in leader, Mrs. Walter E. Henderson's back yard, for a social meeting and picnic. Mothers were invited for dessert and coffee and a social hour.

The umbrella tables were covered with brown cloths with complementary green and white burlap brownies forming horseshoes with campfires in the center. Troop members were responsible for the clever decorations.

With an impressive brocade and flag ceremony, new member Leslie Heimstadt, was inducted.

Mrs. Margaret Vibbert, pack mother for cub scout pack B-24, assisted with a semi-potluck luncheon held at Mrs. Harry Granda's home on Warwick road. It climaxed

Donna Lee Watts, 17211 Kirkshire who graduated from Birmingham high school this month, is working and making plans to enter the University of Michigan this fall where she will major in languages. Her brother, Ralph Watts, Jr. and his wife came from Ann Arbor for her graduation.

George Oliver, 3248 Sheridan, was very surprised last Friday evening when 16 friends arrived to help celebrate his birthday. Lunch and gifts were brought by well-wishers and dancing was enjoyed by all.

On hand from the neighborhood were Mr. and Mrs. Barney Mazur, the Albee Bosses, the Barry Coats, the William Schoenfelds, the Fred Gaubkers and Mrs. Olin Held. Other guests were from the home on Warwick road. It climaxed

Area Youngsters Preparing For Summer Camp Vacations

For a youngster's plaintive vacation-time query, "What'll I do?", camp might be the answer, and some of the young group are getting their tops ready for the trek. The F. D. Knoblock's young Alvin is heading this week for Camp Sherwood at Wallon lake. Alvin lives in Shawdoe lane.

Larry is the Reinhart Vogt's son from 2804 Myrtlewood. Henry VanVorst leaves this week for Camp Temagami in Canada. Larry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry VanVorst, Jr., of Ardmore drive.

Jimmy Tighe, son of the Joseph Tigues of Hills drive, is going to the D-Bar-A scout camp near Metairie.

Over Golfview way, at the George McCutcheon home, every one is busy with camp plans. Mike is already at camp near Hale. Marty left this week for Narrin, and Cathy went to Indianwood near Pontiac.

The John Lindquist's new baby, their first, was born Friday, June 18, Melissa Lee, 8 lbs. 11 oz., born at Beaumont hospital. Will make her home on East Millerville.

WELCOME NEWCOMERS
From the North Adams area to their new home in the Thorncrest subdivision is Paul and Gerry Kelcourse. The Kelcourse have three youngsters—Paul, 9; Karen, 6; and Michael, 2. The Kelcourse are members of Oakland Hills country club and were over last weekend for the big talent show members were given at the club with Puz, Inc.

While J. D. Harrison attended a convention in Atlantic City last week, Mrs. Harrison and Judy visited Doris and Dave Cook and daughter, Linda, of Chatham, N. J. The Cooks' moved from Franklin about a year ago, and it was a happy reunion, especially for the two girls. J. D. Jr. spent the time with friends in Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Webb, entertained their neighbors with a swimming party and picnic supper Sunday.

A big welcome was given Mrs. Virginia Tison and Mrs. Thelma Fleming of Lahser road, who belong to the St. David's guild, were hostesses. They had when all guilds of Holy Name church had a gathering in the Holy Name auditorium.

The things-to-do and places-to-go offerings of Okema make a pleasant weekend. The George Strassers of South Millers was there recently for a few days. They saw Cinerama Holiday, were at the Swiss Chateau, loved the atmosphere of Jacques, where the outdoor tables, the French waiters, and excellent cuisine give a true Parisian flavor.

They had a laugh, a very hearty one, at the Bill-Balles-won't-ou-please-come-home routine of those two entertainers, Eddy Jackson and Jimmy Durante at the Chez Paree.

The John Blacks of Foresto went as far as Marshall with the Strassers on the trip, and they all had dinner at Schulers.

Lathrup Ballet Students Begin 8 Weeks of Study in Chicago

Those whirling dervishes of Lathrup town, Carol Flemming and Jean Norton, danced right out of the village and into Chicago Saturday. Following a two-day attendance at a dance seminar in Flint, the girls left for the Windy city with Jean's parents, the Dana Nortons of Bloomfield.

Where they began eight weeks of concentrated ballet study with Ellis and Hubert. They will return here for the Cochetti recital, then go back again for five more weeks of lessons, ending just as school starts in the fall.

Carol will be a senior at Merye high, and Jean a junior at Shiraz high. The girls are staying with Jean's grandmother in Chicago.

Other visitors to Chicago were the Earle Milnes of Glenwood who left Monday to attend the international newspaper circulation managers convention. The Milnes will spend the weekend with the W. C. Ruth family, former village residents who recently moved to Rockford, Ill.

Traffic is terrific on Glenwood these days. Mrs. Alan Miller and daughter Sally returned Wednesday from a week's visit in La Grange, Ill. with the family of her brother, Cranston Mugg. They were accompanied by her twin niece, Mary and niece Myrtle. Miss Ann Deem returned on Monday to her home in Dayton, Ohio after spending the week at the East of Carol Sorenberg. Miss Deem, a teacher in the Dayton primary schools, was a nominal member of Mrs. Sorenberg's at Monticello college.

The Bruce Shiffers were weekend hosts to former neighbors, the James Kinshurgs, and Sunday morning of Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Shiffers, son Mike and daughter Kathy, accompanied the Kinshurgs, who returned to Cleveland on Monday for a week's visit with many old friends. Mrs. Shiffers will drive to Cleveland on Friday to join his family.

The Albert Flemmings dodged capricious winds over the week-end and aboard a cruiser, leaving the

THE 56-ERS

Meeting of the home of Dick and Ralph Nash Friday evening, the 56-ers, a post high school group of Lathrup young people, held a picnic supper.

Formed through the Community Fellowship church, membership is open to all young unmarried in the neighborhood. A number of picnics and swim parties have been planned throughout the summer.

Members of the group are Edward Schipell, president, John Wilson, secretary, Ralph Nash, treasurer, and Barbara Dewey, publicity. Attending the picnic supper were Joyce Jensen, Nancy Capp, Diane Grant, Joan Wilson, Karen van, Kent Mackey, Carol Caldwell, George Myers, Barbara Clark, Larry Hedlund, Pat Thompson and Barbara Dewey.
