

Couple Reside in Novi Following Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard M. Ucinski have returned from a honeymoon trip to the southwest, and are now residing in their new home in Novi, Mich.

Mrs. Ucinski is the former Janet Virginia Jahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Jahn, of Bell Vine trail, Birmingham. Her husband's parents are the William B. Ucinkis, of Detroit.

The double-ring rites were performed June 2 at Immaculate Heart of Mary parish, Detroit. The bride chose a traditionally styled dress of white lace over taffeta, her veil cascading from a small hat trimmed in organza and lace. Gowned in yellow crystallette, Phyllis J. Strang was maid of honor. Bridesmaids Mrs. Charles Murray, the groom's sister, and Gretchen Klien, of Toledo, wore turquoise lace. Robert Manderfield, of Detroit, was best man. Others were Charles Murray and Robert Jahn, the bride's brother.

350 Guests Witness Haugh-Martin Rites

Upon their return from a trip to Northern Michigan and Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Robert John Haugh will reside in East Lansing where Bob is a student at Michigan State university. They were married Saturday evening in First Methodist church, Birmingham, in the presence of 350 guests.

The bride is the former Leah Bonnah Martin, daughter of the Hugh R. Martins of Maybee. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Melvin O. Haugh of Puritan road, Birmingham.

LEAH chose a gown of Dupioni silk with a panel of appliqued French lace on the bodice. Front outlined with pleated points of peau-de-soie. The pleating was repeated on the short sleeves and gantlets and the circular skirt ended in a chapel train.

Seed pearls trimmed the lace pillow which secured her veil of silk illusion. Her flowers were white orchids and stephanotis.

Joanne Cammett of Detroit was the honor maid. Bridesmaids were Nancy Bailey of Detroit, Mrs. Lynn Reynolds of Lansing and Mrs. Anita Gosord of Hillsdale. Betty Haugh of Birmingham served as a junior bridesmaid and flower girls were Donna Lee Martin of Wyandotte and Nancy Lee Flick of Indianapolis.

SWEETHEART roses were used for the nosegays and bouquets of the flower girls. Their dresses were white nylon over Nile green silk and cotton.

The maids had gowns of Nile green silk and cotton fashioned with scooped necklines, three-quarter length sleeves and bouffant ballieras, length skirts. Betty's dress had short sleeves.

They were matching shoes and picture hats and carried crescent shaped bouquets with ivory streamers.

The groom's brother, Donald, was best man and the bride's brother, Paul Martin of Wyandotte, and James Reynolds of Lan-

Bride Wears Gown Of Own Design

A gown of her own design was worn by Carolyn L. Beckwith for her marriage Saturday to Ralston W. Schultz at First Congregational church in Benton Harbor.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Beckwith, of Benton Harbor. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Stewart F. Schultz, 4755 Walnut Lake road, Birmingham.

BEFORE 250 GUESTS, Dr. Howard A. Blanning performed the double-ring ceremony.

Carolyn chose Chantilly lace over taffeta for her gown, which she designed with a scalloped apron of lace, filled in with tulle. Matching Chantilly lace with pearl trim formed the can which held a fingertip French silk illusion veil.

She carried a double cascade of white carnations.

Miss Lois Kintz, of Los Angeles, was Carolyn's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sara Dunn, of Birmingham, and Marian Blakeslee, of Benton Harbor.

THEY WERE GOWNED alike in sheer white embossed nylon over Nile green. Their bridesmaids were bands of green French tulle leaves, and they carried colonial bouquets of yellow gaisies and carnations.

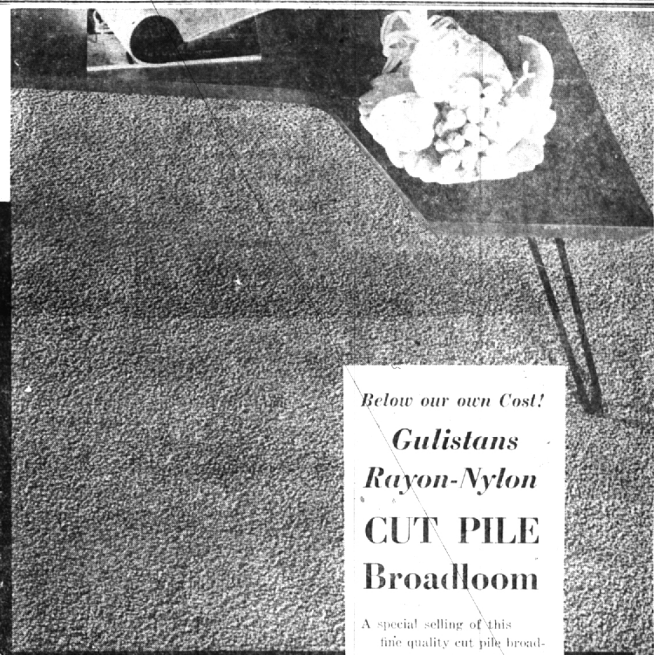

Stewart Schultz, of Birmingham, was his brother's best man. Ushers were Lt. G. Glen Beckwith, of Ft. Ord, Calif., the bride's brother; Charles Wise and Donald Dilworth, of Detroit, and Richard BeGole, of Birmingham.

After a reception at the church, the couple left for a trip through the Northwest to Seattle. The bride chose a rust-colored ensemble and beige accessories for travel.

The couple will make their home in Columbus, O., temporarily, and plan to live in Baltimore, where Stewart is being assigned by the Air Force, after August 1.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—the society editor about them.
