Suburban Shopper Service Expanded

Birmingham's neighborhood corner bus service to the downtown area has been expanded to include several new sections.

The Micro buses will now travel routes in the Oak-Chester section, the Pembroke-Graefield section, the Cranbrook-W. Maple section and the Eton-14 Mile road section.

Besides, the advantage of getting to a shopping area, the Suburban Shopper suggests that domestic help will be able to benefit from the schedule to and from the Greyhound terminal.

Special fares can be arranged with local merchants, in addition to savings on the round trip ticket booklet.

Operations continue five days a week, except Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.
