

Influence by example is greater than the power of action and is present. Most of the people here by watching what the elders do or have done, paying only lip service to the mere mouthing of his side of the mouth. It has always been thus. Let your example be in action... they are better understood.

June Altar Dates Bring Party Whirl For Brides-Elect

The month of brides is here, and many Birmingham area girls are caught up in the fast pace of parties that precedes the wedding ceremonies.

Josephine Rothman, Christine Levring and Elaine Darden are among the happy brides-elect who have chosen attendants and are making plans for June marriages.

THE EDWARD E. ROTHMAN family is about to be caught in a whirl of activities that will continue right up to the last minute June 30 when daughter Josephine becomes the bride of William H. Frauliger in a ceremony at the Walnut Lake summer residence of her grandmother, Mrs. Albert Kahn.

Yesterday, the Rothmans returned from New York, where they were present for daughter Lydia's graduation from Barnard college.

Lydia will be her sister's maid of honor and Mrs. Walter J. Truetzner, Bill's sister-in-law, is to be matron of honor.

JO HAS CHOSEN SIX bridesmaids, Mrs. Charles Berry, Wilmetts, Mass.; Virginia Davison of Birmingham; Ann High of Metromora, So. Martin of New York; Elizabeth Metcalf of Detroit and Ann Talbot of Short Hills, N. J.

Two more parties are on the agenda, too. Mrs. Carlton M. Higley and daughter Ann have one planned for the 24th and Elliott Trumbull will entertain at another on June 26.

THE PRESUMPTIVE festivities will get under way Wednesday when Mrs. William T. Gossett entertains Jo at a luncheon in her Bloomfield Hills home.

Branch is planned June 17 for Jo and Bill in the Inneses home of St. Clair Shores. Thomas Purdy of Grosse Pointe, Elliott Trumbull of Bloomfield Hills and Kenneth Wilson of Birmingham.

Mrs. Jonathan Ball and daughter Linda of Shirley drive, Birmingham, are giving a brunch June 18. The next day, there will be a luncheon by Mrs. George Romney and Mrs. Robert Wardrop in the Romney home on Vaughan road, Bloomfield Hills.

Also on the 20th, there's a cocktail party for the couple in the West. Twelve Mile road home of Virginia Davison.

MRS. C. THURON VAN DUSEN of Benington drive, Bloomfield Hills, will hostess a luncheon and kitchen shower June 21. A tea in the Adams road home of Mrs. M. Perry Williams with Mrs. Robert W. Budd as co-hostess. Elizabeth Metcalf plans a luncheon on June 23.

Two more parties are on the agenda, too. Mrs. Carlton M. Higley and daughter Ann have one planned for the 24th and Elliott Trumbull will entertain at another on June 26.

Before the afternoon wedding rehearsal June 29, brunch will be served by the Roy E. Strangers of Glenhurst avenue, Birmingham. The senior Truetzners will be hosts for the rehearsal dinner for the wedding party and out of town guests, at Detroit Golf club.

Lydia will be hostess in the Rothmans' Linden road, Birmingham, home for the spinster dinner, June 27, while Walter J. Truetzner, Jr. hosts the bachelor dinner in Mrs. Kahn's home.

PARENTS of the couple will also be entertained that evening. The Rothmans and the Walter J. Truetzners, Mr. and Mrs. Eliot F. Robinson and the junior Harry L. Winston.

Before the afternoon wedding rehearsal June 29, brunch will be served by the Roy E. Strangers of Glenhurst avenue, Birmingham. The senior Truetzners will be hosts for the rehearsal dinner for the wedding party and out of town guests, at Detroit Golf club.

Lydia Rothman, daughter of Edward E. Rothman, is pictured here in a recent photograph. She is the bride-elect of William H. Frauliger.

Mrs. Charles Berry, one of the bridesmaids for Josephine Rothman, is pictured here with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Albert Kahn.

50 Years Ago . . . Today

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ziegler of Maryland boulevard, Birmingham, were united in marriage at the home of her parents at 16th street, Detroit, where now stands the Michigan Central Depot.

For her June 7th ceremony, Mrs. Ziegler wore a full length beige brocaded taffeta with accents of matching lace. Her little flower girl, Elma Link, daughter of the minister, served as the ring bearer, carrying the ring on the stem of a calla lily.

Although today is their anniversary, they were already entertained at dinner Tuesday evening followed by a theatre party as the guests of Will-O-Way Playhouse.

Will-O-Way was honoring a couple married the greatest number of years on their opening night of "Anniversary Waltz," and since the Ziegler's golden event was only two days away, they were included in the dinner party at Devon Gables with Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Crawford, Jr. of Red Leaf lane, who were married eight years ago June 5.

The Ziegler's sons and families, Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Ziegler of Midland and Dr. and Mrs. Robert F. Ziegler will honor their parents at an open house and reception this Sunday, June 10, from 3 to 6 p.m. at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ziegler, 4100 Beach road, Birmingham. Neighbors and friends are invited to the celebration.

Suburban Scene Parties Planned As St. Dunstan's 'Our Town' Opens

By BARBARA GANSCHOW

Many parties are scheduled before and after the presentations of "Our Town" by members of St. Dunstan's Guild. The Carl W. Moyers party tomorrow evening preceding the opening night offering, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Kennan, Jr., of Royal Oak, will have some of their neighbors in after the show.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gieg of Portland, Ore., former members of the theater group, will be honored guests at a pot-luck supper opening night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell S. Clough on Overhill road, Bloomfield Village. Gieg devised and put into operation new lighting equipment for St. Dunstan's two years ago.

Dinner parties will be hosted before the show Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Otis C. Thompson of 13 Mile road, Southfield township, the Benjamin Brewsters of Brookdale road, Bloomfield township, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Jackson of Pilgrim avenue, Birmingham.

Closing night, June 16, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Aldrich of Baldwin court, Birmingham, will entertain after the show. Mrs. C. Anthony Ransdell is making arrangements for the cast party to be given by James L. Schneider at the Island Lake home of his parents, the Louis J. Schneiders.

"Our Town" is to be presented June 8-9 and June 15-16 in the Greek theater at Cranbrook with curtain time at 9 p.m.

Bowies Off to New York

About 30 members of North Woodward alumnae association of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority gathered for coffee this morning to say good-bye to Harriet Bowie, who, with husband Chester and family is moving from her Wellesley drive home in Birmingham to New York. Mrs. Preston Wein of Bryn Mawr road was hostess for the event.

New Members Honored

New members of the junior group of Goodwill Industries were honored at a tea Monday in the home of Mrs. Otis Walker in Coosue Pointe.

Among them were Mrs. William B. Cary of Square Lake road, Troy township, Mrs. James T. Barnard of Kepnesaw avenue, Birmingham, Mrs. Neil Hyde of Tibury road, Bloomfield Village, and Mrs. George T. Wilde of Rosemond drive, Southfield township.

Serving as hospitality co-chairmen for the organization are Mrs. Harry J. Altick of Kennesaw avenue, Birmingham, and Mrs. Edward A. Murray of Covington road, Bloomfield Village.

Entertains Fraternity Brothers

Michael Basford, a pre-law student at University of Michigan, entertained his fraternity brothers and their dates recently at a party in the home of his parents, the Frank C. Basfords of Lake Park avenue, Birmingham.

(See SUBURBAN SCENES, Page 2, Sec. 2)

Spanish Class Will Be Fun For Teacher and Student

By JULIE CANDLER

"We are just going to have fun," said the trim, Spanish teacher with a delightful accent that stems from a girlhood in Mexico and schooling in France.

The fun Mrs. A. Sweetman Smith was discussing is the course in Spanish conversation she plans to instruct at Kingswood school's first summer school.

Like the rest of the summer school students registered in the session beginning June 18, Mrs. Smith's Spanish class will be assigned no homework.

"WE ARE JUST going to have lots of interesting conversations, and they will all be in Spanish," said teacher Smith.

Both beginner and students with some experience in the language will be able to join in the talks—all they have to do is know how to talk.

"In those days, Latin American young men were sent to England to be educated, and the girls went to Europe. So I attended school in Paris for four years before going on to college," Mrs. Smith explained.

ABOUT THAT TIME the trend grew toward sending young Latin Americans to American schools to be educated, and in the future way the young lady from Mexico City was thus entered at Western Reserve university.

It was after she graduated from the Cleveland school with a degree in library science that the break with routine came.

"IN MEXICO at that time, a woman did not work, and she had little freedom in comparison to the American woman. I loved this new-found freedom of being on my own. And I enjoyed being able to do the library work I liked, and had spent four years in learning," she explained.

A later job brought her to the foreign department of the library in Detroit, where she met and married a Milford attorney.

It was in Detroit that the young Mexican woman took up the exciting task of acting as an interpreter in trials and important parleys involving the English and Mexican speaking people.

INTERPRETING for the prosecuting attorney in a murder trial before Judge (later Senator) Homer Ferguson, she translated the testimony of three accused Mexicans for the Wayne county circuit court.

THE MURDER had been a prohibition era crime in which the three Mexicans had allegedly killed a Canadian with whom they were involved in rum running.

ONCE THE MEXICAN consulate in Detroit called for her to interpret for Mexican laborers in a dispute with sugar beet industry representatives in Saginaw.

Alumnae Chapter Sets Annual Meet

The Detroit Alumnae chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon will hold their annual meeting June 11, at the home of Mrs. James M. Skilman in Rosemont drive. Co-hostesses include Mrs. W. H. Craven and Miss Helen Graham and Miss Dorothy Sedick.

Original composition for voice, violin and piano will be performed by members and presented by program chairman, Mrs. Robert Jones.

SOC Delta Zetas End Club Year

The South Oakland County Alumnae Chapter of Delta Zeta Sorority announces its officers for the coming year.

Mrs. William Kunde of Royal Oak will serve as president, Mrs. Winfield Himman of Franklin as vice president, Mrs. Richard Lowmaster of Southfield Township as secretary and Mrs. Harold Van Drugg of Birmingham as treasurer.

Both groups of the chapter will end their club year this week. The evening group is planning a pot-luck picnic with their husbands at the home of Mrs. Richard Goodwin on Saturday, June 9, at 7 p.m.

THE MICHIGAN branch will present "A memory Book of Jane Addams" at 5 p.m., Saturday at the Chestnutfield road home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Baker in Bloomfield Hills.

OTHER local members of the Oakland County branch who have gathered their attics for costumes and hats of the 1890s vintage and have finally succeeded in squeezing into grandmothers' size twelve waists are Mrs. Robert Applegate, who plays a student in Saxe-Coburg, Germany, required by her employer brewer to carry kegs of scalding brew on her back, and Miss Addams protests to the brewer.

Susan McLay plays Miss Addams in Germany and also in Russia interviewing Count and Countess Tolstoy. Tolstoy points to her large leg-of-mutton sleeve and tells her it would make a frock for a child.

ONE of the most dramatic of the tableaux is set in the Fried's Meeting House, Philadelphia, in 1917, when the fourth annual meeting of the Women's Peace Party is being visited by an agent of the FBI who finds the women all dressed in a silent prayer for peace.

LYNN LUDDEN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clemens P. Ludden of Woodlea lane, Birmingham, is pictured operating a TV camera for KWWC, closed-circuit station, at Stephens college, Columbia, Mo. She studied radio-television at the college and got practical experience by working at the station, receiving her degree last week. A member of Alpha Epsilon Rho radio fraternity, she also was secretary of Alpha Alpha alpha sorority.

Costumes Depict Early Styles, Peace League Honors Founder

By FRAN MAIER

A Birmingham woman, Mrs. John Gaffill of Frank street, will depict Jane Addams in the tribute to be paid the founder of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom on June 9.

The "Memory Book" of Jane Addams, starting as a girl of twelve, an Italian friend—her first glimpse that international relations are actual facts and not mere phrases—and concluding with the round-the-world tour she made in 1915 shortly before her death.

THE ENTIRE program will be held out of doors, weather permitting, and reservations for dinner may be made by calling Mrs. Robert Applegate.

FOLLOWING the "Memory plegate on Elon road, Birmingham.

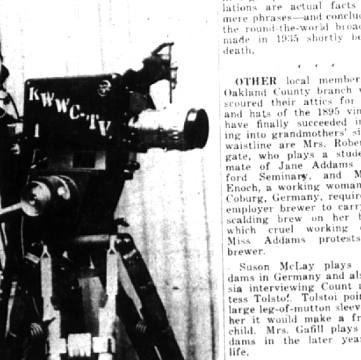

THE MICHIGAN branch will present "A memory Book of Jane Addams" at 5 p.m., Saturday at the Chestnutfield road home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Baker in Bloomfield Hills.

OTHER local members of the Oakland County branch who have gathered their attics for costumes and hats of the 1890s vintage and have finally succeeded in squeezing into grandmothers' size twelve waists are Mrs. Robert Applegate, who plays a student in Saxe-Coburg, Germany, required by her employer brewer to carry kegs of scalding brew on her back, and Miss Addams protests to the brewer.

ONE of the most dramatic of the tableaux is set in the Fried's Meeting House, Philadelphia, in 1917, when the fourth annual meeting of the Women's Peace Party is being visited by an agent of the FBI who finds the women all dressed in a silent prayer for peace.

DISCUSSING THE conversations in Spanish they plan to engage in during Kingswood school's summer session are Mrs. A. Sweetman Smith, Kingswood librarian who will teach Spanish, and Bernice Lyon, of Bloomfield Hills, who is enrolled in Mrs. Smith's summer class.

LYNN LUDDEN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clemens P. Ludden of Woodlea lane, Birmingham, is pictured operating a TV camera for KWWC, closed-circuit station, at Stephens college, Columbia, Mo. She studied radio-television at the college and got practical experience by working at the station, receiving her degree last week. A member of Alpha Epsilon Rho radio fraternity, she also was secretary of Alpha Alpha alpha sorority.

PORTRAYING the role of Jane Addams in her later years of life is Mrs. John Gaffill.