SIZZLE IS FOR STEAKS
not for men!

We're mighty fond of the sizzle that announces a succulent steak. But we get sartorial indignation when we hear a man complain about the difficulty of keeping cool and well-dressed in the warm-weather.

REASON: Our Silk and Woollen suits are not only cool but amazingly adept at keeping their shape.

So why sizzle? Enjoy the warm-weather comfort a silk and woollen suit can provide!

MRS. JEROME E. FROEHLICH

Jacquelin Braun Wed
In St. Hugo's Rites

Three maids gowned in pink nylon organdy preceded Jacquelyn Ann Braun down the aisle of St. Hugo of the Hills church Saturday morning when she became the bride of Jerome Edward Froehlich.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Braun of Cedarholm lane, Bloomfield Hills, and the son of the Elmer W. Froehlich of Detroit were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony in the presence of 100 guests.

EMBROIDERED ORGANDY fashioned the bridal gown. It was styled with scalloped neckline, short sleeves and a chapel train. An organdy leaf cap secured Jacquelyn's veil and she carried a colonial bouquet.

Cynthia Braun was her sister's maid of honor and Aline Froehlich, Jerome's sister, and Agnes Moroun of Grosse Pointe were bridesmaids. Bouquets of pink roses and stephanotis complemented their waltz length dresses.

Best man was Robert Brezinski of Detroit and Leo Hawk of Lima, Ohio, and Charles Feucht of Detroit served as ushers.

FOREST LAKE country club was the scene of the reception. Mrs. Braun received in a dress of dusty pink paper taffeta styled with a lace yoke. The groom's mother wore Dior blue taffeta and lace. Each had matching accessories, flowered hats and cymbium orchid corsages.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Froehlich was attired in a beige silk sheath dress and pale yellow accessories.

Among out of town guests were Edward Keen of Erie, Pa., a former classmate of the groom at Notre Dame university, and Dr. and Mrs. Erwin Sluder of Barberton, Ohio.
