The Roger Blackwoods Spend Two Week Vacation in South

Back from a two weeks southern vacation are the Roger Blackwoods of Charmwood drive. After a few days in New Orleans, they returned by way of the great Smoky Mountains. Their trip included stop overs at Springfield, Ill., Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, Biloxi, Miss., where they visited some of Mr. Blackwood's army buddies.

Deborah and Charles Route of Robson Lane have grandma, Mrs. Sylvia Buchin, of Flint, all to themselves this week. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Route are enjoying a motor trip to Hot Springs, Ark. and are planning on staying at the Homestead for a few days. Their return trip will be by way of the sky line drive.

North Adams area was well represented at Pembroke school auditorium on the afternoon May 29, for the presentation of "Music Around Our Town", a program in which the first three grades participated.

Officers of Pack B-31 cub scouts held their May meeting at Pembroke school, May 28. New officers were chosen for the coming year and plans made for a June picnic at Kensington park for all the Cubs and their families.

The play "Pajama Game" and a snack afterwards made the evening of May 23 a most enjoyable one for the neighbors and newcomers of Eastover road. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chauvin, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Bohner and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schmidt.

The Edwin Rogers of Eastover road were hosts Saturday evening
