

Bus Ordinance Tabled Till '57

There won't be any more discussion of a municipal bus ordinance for at least six months, the Birmingham city commission has agreed.

They tabled a hearing of proposed regulations until at least 1957.

Ordinance suggestions stemmed from recent creation of an intra-city shoppers' bus service.

Renfrew, "Let's see how the present bus company seems to be getting along and whether there actually is a need for it" (the ordinance).

Michigan League Reunion Attended by Linn Smiths

Mr. and Mrs. Linn Smith, 1823 Pembroke, recently attended a reunion of the Michigan League in Ann Arbor. The next morning they entertained a few friends from the reunion at breakfast in their home. Monday the Smiths left for Chicago to attend the wedding of a friend, Mrs. Betty Rullison, a former Pembroke resident. They returned home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Coyle Fisher, of Derby road, had as their houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Warren McGill from Pittsburgh and Mr. and Mrs. Rayne Vincent of Grand Rapids. The two couples were in Birmingham to attend the wedding Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Fisher's son.

Another houseguest, staying for a longer visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reines, 1736 Graefield, is Mrs. Reines' mother, Mrs. J. J. Schunkenberg of Mexico City, Mexico. Mrs. Schunkenberg arrived by plane last week and expects to remain about a month.

The regular monthly get-together of the Grayfield sewing club met last week at the home of Mrs. John Thomson on Graefield road, in Troyton Manor. Those attending were Mrs. Harry Lippard, Mrs. Walter Eberger, Mrs. Phillip Klintworth, Mrs. Le Grand Torres, Mrs. Gene Morze, and Mrs. William Mahan. Dessert and coffee were served during the evening.

Saturday a reunion party was held in the Cambridge Village home of Mr. and Mrs. Allan E. Ash for several couples who have all been Graefield Terrace residents. After dinner, served at candlelit tables, there was dancing and much reminiscing in the Ash's recreation room.

Present at the get-together were Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ford, Jr., now of Henrietta street, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mattson of Pembroke, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Klintworth of Graefield road, Troyton Manor, and Mr. and Mrs. Page Noll, Jr., Graefield Terrace.

Welcome to little Polly Jane Wobrock, new daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wobrock, 749 Graefield Court. She put in her appearance Sunday morning, June 3, at William Beaumont hospital, weighing seven pounds, one ounce. Besides her parents, she joins sister Wendy, two years old.

Welcome to new members Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Knapp of Renwood, and their two children, Gayle, 2, and Tom, 7. Mr. Knapp is a member mechanic with Thomas Dye and Tools Co. and is a "ham" radio operator. Mrs. Knapp is an ice hockey enthusiast. The Knapps moved to Renwood from Berkley. Reaching the age of two years was cause for very thorough celebration for Master Dane Christy, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Christy, 974 Brooklawn, who entertained in his honor at a family breakfast for 18 guests at their home.

Among these present were Dane's godparents, Miss Natalie Werner and Mr. Max Werner. A few days later, on his actual birthday, Mrs. Christy entertained 15 neighborhood children and mothers. The party theme was Mexican and the children received outdoor toys as favors.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Christy had as their dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Walter Werner, Mrs. Christy's parents, who were celebrating their 40th wedding anniversary.
