Ensign William Black to Train For Olympic Swimming Team

Ensign and Mrs. William Black loaded up their station wagon last week and left Lone Pine Village for Long Beach, Calif. Bill Black, who has been on duty aboard the carrier "Yorktown" near Japan for the past year, was recalled by Washington to train and compete in the Olympic swim tryouts on the coast during the summer.

Should Bill be chosen to sail leave for Australia in September and represent Uncle Sam in the Olympics. Bill, who attended Michigan State College, has two swimming records there which have never been broken. Mrs. Black is the Norman Shales' daughter, Marilyn. The Shales live on Bowen lane.

How would you like to have guests arrive from Florida, bags filled with shorts and backless dresses, and greet them with last week's January-in-June weather?

There was the usual first aid and knot tying contests along with the pancake game, whereby a scout makes a pancake, runs a distance, flips and catches the pancake in mid-air, with a prize for the winner. Bob admits the hard part of this is that you must eat your own flapjack.

"Kaki" Roberts of Shadow lane was in the Melodrama horse show on Memorial Day and also did a Sunday show at Ivory's. "Kaki," who has been riding since the age of four, rides a mount called "Who."

From the date country of India, Calif., came Mr. and Mrs. Selo Powers for a visit last week with Mr. and Mrs. William I. Carpenter of Maple road.

Newcomers to West Harsdale are the Donald Whitfields. They have one daughter, Donna, a Michigan State student, who is planning her wedding shortly. Don Whitfield's hobby is guns and sports. He and his wife are active in advertising and newspaper work, collects antiques and writes poetry. The Whitfields are from General Motors.

New residents on Jonathan lane are Laura and Raymond Cahill. The Cahills formerly lived on Lincoln road in Birmingham and are members of Forest Lake country club. Mrs. Cahill's hobbies are gardening and languages, Spanish and Portuguese primarily. She attended Wayne university.

Raymond Cahill belongs to the Navy League, Sigma Delta Kappa legal fraternity, the American Ordnance Association and the national society of former special agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He is a graduate of Columbia Law School, attended the University of Minnesota and took with Ford Motor Co.

Newest Lone Pine Village residents are Lou Warren Scott III, formerly of New Grace hospital, Detroit. The 7 pound, 11 1/2 ounce newborn, whose chief interest is formulas, arrived on Memorial Day and plans to make his home with the two Warrens of Northdale.

place wearing protective. The Harrison's son, Frank, Michigan State student, was honored at a recent dinner for all athletes, and he will continue tonight from Detroit to school the month.

Another June graduate is Kathy Flaherty of Pon Valley, who graduated from Marymount. Kathy's parents, the Joseph Flaherty's, left for New York last week to pick up their other daughter, Pat, who attended school at Manhattanville and then the two went on to Parktown N. Y. for Kathy's boyhood.
