2 Services Mark Children's Day At 1st Baptist

Two services will observe Children's Day at First Baptist church on Sunday.

At 9:45 a.m. all church school departments will assemble in the church sanctuary for the annual event, sponsored nationwide on this day by the National Council of Churches.

Each of the departments, whose superintendents are Mrs. Frank Prouse, Mrs. Charles Morse, Mrs. Claude O'Connell, and Mrs. Robert Bolwood, will join in the program.

There will be special music provided under the guidance of Charles L. Holtz, sanctuary choir director, and Mrs. Walter Folk, chapel choir director.

DR. EMIL KUNTZ, pastor of the church, will present certificates to teachers concluding a special training course.

Being his sermon on "Jesus' Remark" that all His disciples must become as children, Dr. Kuntz will preach before a combined church school and congregation at 11 a.m., when families are invited to sit together.

The latter service will include the dedication of infants and recognition of graduates.

Jehovah's Witnesses Attend Weekend Meeting

The Birmingham congregation of Jehovah's witnesses attended a three-day training program at Caro, Michigan last weekend. They were among 1200 others from 19 congregations in southeastern Michigan attending the meeting.

Mr. Floyd Adams, presiding minister of the group, said the object of the program is to equip every one of the preaching disciples in the practical use of the Bible as a help in fortifying the spiritual morale of people in our community.

Mr. Adams said Jehovah's witnesses are enrolled in ministerial training of at least five classes weekly.

Church News Deadline is 5 p.m. on Thursdays.

United Brethren Sets Bible School, Children's Program

At a special program planned for 11 a.m. Sunday, children in the Sunday school at United Brethren church, West 14 Mile road, will observe the annual celebration of Children's Day. The program will through 20. With a study theme include recitations and music by the children's choir. The church is sponsoring a vacation Bible school from June 19 daily. Classes will meet from 9 to 11:45.
