Entertain Former Classmate At Mother-Children's Tea

Many activities were planned last week by the Thomas Mitzfelds of Arlington to entertain their house guest and Mrs. Mitzfeld's former classmate at Wayne university, Mrs. George Wright, librarian at the California School for the Blind in Oakland, Calif.

On Saturday, May 26, they attended the annual Wayne University alumni dance and tenth reunion of their graduating class.

The following Monday afternoon from 2 o'clock till 5 a mother and children's tea provided an opportunity for Mrs. Wright to visit with former classmates and their off-spring.

Mrs. Albert Hahn came from Toledo, Ohio and Mrs. Stephen Ford from Ann Arbor. Other guests came from Detroit suburbs, Charlie and Ed Mitzfeld, 5 1/2 and 1 1/2 years respectively, entertained the 13 youngsters attending.

A buffet supper of ham, chicken, salads and a variety of covered dishes and breads was served. Replays and contests were held and prizes suitable for the children's ages were distributed. Each child received a balloon, a candy bar and a package of gum.

Mrs. Leonard Keil, Mrs. Gust Headblom and Mrs. Morris Fox assisted the Angels and Schrecks in making plans and managing the large party which was held from 4 till 8 o'clock.

The Alex (outlets, 1725 Locher, are very proud of daughter Ellen 16, who will graduate from Birmingham high school next week. Although she has only lived here two years, Ellen will be valedictorian of the graduating class. Neighbors and friends are congratulating her and wishing her success in her career of medical technology for which she will begin training in the fall.

GIRL SCOUTS
Browbe Troop 687 accompanied by fathers enjoyed a layette and dinner at Haysville Lodge in Rochester. Thirty-two including leader Mrs. Walter Henderson attended the unique party.

Mothers of the girl scouts in troop 274 were honored at a play home, Mrs. D. E. Custance on Arlington. At a concert, 20 girls from troop 621 "flow up" from brownie to girl scout rank, attaining this rank under the guidance of co-leaders Mrs. C. Greiner and Mrs. Wilford White.
