

Dillon-Fisher Rites Solemnized Saturday

In a double-ring ceremony Saturday morning at Holy Name church, Birmingham, Jo Ann Catherine Dillon and Lawrence Andrew Fisher were united in marriage by Father Gerald Martin of Detroit.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Ann Dillon of Detroit and her husband's parents are the Coyle R. Fishers of Derby road, Birmingham.

JO ANN was wearing a traditional gown of white satin as she walked down the aisle on the arm of her brother, Frank A. Dillon, Jr., of Detroit.

Squibs and pearls were embroidered on the bodice of her floor length bridal gown, styled with long sleeves and boat neckline. The veil was secured by headpiece of pearls and tulle and white orchids and stephanotis were combined in the bouquets.

The honor attendants were gowned in identically styled sheath dresses of white lace over coral tulle for the matron and over pink tulle for the maids. A feature of the dresses was the design of the skirts which were fashioned with fishtail panels and puffs of tulle.

MRS. EDWARD YOUNG of Detroit was matron of honor and Joan Huebler of Detroit, Mrs. Ray Belletini of Livonia and Mrs. Vic Bacellus of Grand Pointe served as bridesmaids.

They wore hats and shoes to match their gowns and carried nosegays of pink carnations and lily. Mrs. Young's bouquet also contained roses.

Ushers were George Aeger, and Edward F. Kilber, Jr., of Detroit, Carl Scharf of Cleveland, Ohio, and Charles De Puyet of Birmingham. William Stanczyk of Detroit was best man.

MRS. DILLON chose a dusty rose silk dress, pink sequined hat and beige stole for her daughter's wedding. The groom's mother was attired in a beige gown and coat with a pink tulle hat.

The newweds left a reception in the Park-Shelton hotel for a wedding trip to Miami Beach, Fla. They will make their home in Detroit.

Will-O-Way Tickets

Tickets for Will-O-Way's Sunday evening presentation of "Anniversary Waltz" are being sold by the Florence Crittenton hospital auxiliary as a project to raise funds for the hospital's benefit.

Latest venture of the group is to refresh an expectant father's waiting-in room.
