Mock Election Results Told At Senior Dinner

At the recent senior dinner in the Maple room, the Birmingham seniors heard the results of their mock elections. The results were presented humorously by Barbara Shinnick and Bill O'Neal. Winners were best dressed, Ed Leavenworth; Barbara Bernhardt; best smile, Larry Milford; Barbara Stinson; most athletic, Bill Swamy; Claire DeNador; cutest couple, Charles Frederickson; Marie Lindquist, Don Hough, Carol Orr.

BEST DANCER: Toby Wells, Jane Lindley; most likely to succeed, Bob Hohmeyer, Ann Gardner; prettiest hair, Lee Abernethy; Ann Willett; bestlooking, Wayne Geggie, Patty Harman. Others were peppier Jay Lewis, Ethel Roehm; best build, John Appleford; cutest figure, Pat Nyberg; most fun to be with, Bill O'Neal, Barbara Shinnick; best legs, Greg Bevis, Carole Negri; most talented, Mike Weston, Nina Slavson; best behind-the-scenes-worker, Stuart Laidlay, Jan Palmer.

Class comedian, Dave Dixon, Julie Stubbs; most class spirit, John Fawcett, Judy Collins; friendliest, Ekhard Dorfman, Margaret Davis; class optimist, Tom Halsted, Gina Walter; laziest, Nick Colbert, Erin Hayes.

YOU CAN'T have a Field day when the field is partially under water, but that doesn't make these students feel any happier about the cancellation of Barnum junior high school's annual event this year. They were all prepared to sport the above Disneyland characters which John Kiefer (right) spent hours producing for Field day. From left are Goody, Lee Latteire, Donald Duck, Clayton Lewis, Gramma, Uncle Scrooge, John and Mickey Mouse. Barnum Principal Herbert Hengst said the Birmingham high school football field was the only one with bleachers to seat the 900 students, and the wet spring made it regrettably impossible to use the field.

Commencement Activity Begins At Cranbrook

By KEN CAMERON
The Cranbrook commencement activities started Friday with the moving-up ceremony for eighth grade boys. A summing up of the school year by Larry DeWitt was followed by presentation of the Jon Lawrence award to Richard Munt for contributing the most to the Lower School. Harry D. Hoey, headmaster, introduced the guest speaker, Ralph Gotsinger, Jr., an alumnus of Cranbrook.

This evening from 9 to 11 will be the Cranbrook commencement dance. Doug Shaw, chairman of the social committee, has arranged for Dave Martin and his band to provide the music. At 11 p.m., Pete Bedford, the head prefect, will give the juniors their senior rings. Dave Campbell is giving a dinner party preceding the dance for all juniors.

Tomorrow night at 7:30 will be Awards night. Recognition will be given for outstanding contributions in scholarship, the arts, music, athletics and citizenship.

Couples To Be Weighed At Door For Bermuda Bounce

Plans are being completed for the Bermuda Bounce, a variety club's dance to be presented tomorrow night in the Maple room. A special feature will be scales at the doors which will determine the admission price according to each person's weight, five cents for each 20 pounds.

Clothing may be either Bermuda shorts or school clothes. Members helping to organize the dance are Bob Hohmeyer, general chairman; Lee Abernethy, decorator; Marshall Roe, publicity; Jim Macdonald, tickets; and Tony Evangelista, door prizes.
