

Baccalaureate Services Held At Christ Church

The Rev. James B. Shannon, rector of St. Andrew's church in State College, Pa., gave the address at baccalaureate services Sunday which Kingwood and Cranbrook seniors marched in the procession at Christ Church Cranbrook.

Troy High Seniors Honored

Highlighting a week of graduation activities which will be climaxed tonight at graduation exercises was a class night program held Tuesday to honor graduates of Troy high school.

Immediately following the service the Kingswood and Cranbrook seniors went to the Bloomfield Hills country club for Marjie Stevenson's buffet dinner.

Friday noon Kingswood seniors followed their first commencement rehearsal with a swimming party at Orchard Lake country club as the guests of Karen Thompson, Barbara Thompson, Nancy Miller and Karen Gildersleeve.

The girls dined at the club after their slightly chilly outdoor activities.

Cyril Jenner has been chosen as toastmistress for this year's junior-senior banquet tomorrow.

Kingwood Day was celebrated Friday, when members of the "K" club were announced and team captains turned over their responsibilities to their successors.

New green team heads are Trudy Walker, Linda Waeles and Mary Lou Middleton.

White team captains are Chris Norwell, Sandra Duseberry and Heather Rayburn.

Honored as all-around athletes were Sue Allen, Jody Frederickson, and Amy Howell.

Chosen by a vote of the first and second hockey teams as winner of the MacLean trophy was Amy Howell.

This year's awards for the best citizen in each grade went to Jacqueline Zwieler, seventh grade; Barbara Cripps, eighth grade; Jan Vary, ninth grade; Mary Horton, tenth grade; Madeline Hamady, eleventh grade; and Sue Day, twelfth grade.

SHIRLEY SQUIRE was the recipient of the commercial award. Two honors went to Ingrid Bjornstad, who was presented the DAR and teachers' association awards.

Jerry Char received the science award, while Roy Ernst, senior class president, was given a music award for band, and Betty Long for teachers.

The teachers' association scholarship went to Wilma McPhee. A regents' alumni scholarship was awarded Jerry Char. Other scholarships were Ralph Darby, Michigan State, and Ivan Betzel, Lawrence Tech.

THE 12 MEMBERS of the senior class, with class president Roy Ernst acting in their behalf, presented $100 in new reference books for the school library at their gift.

At the commencement program tonight at 8 p. m., the Rev. Henry Hill Crane, Ph.D., of Metropolitan Methodist church, will be the speaker.

Other officers of the senior class are Jerome Char, vice president; Shelly Smith Bailey, secretary; and Ingrid Bjornstad, treasurer.
