Richard Schefflines Home From 3-Week Trip South

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scheffline of Maple road have returned home after a three-week trip south. They stopped in Miami, then went down to the Keys where they took a boat for Cuba.

In Havana the Schefflines spent one evening at one of the world's most famous supper clubs, the Tropicans. Here, guests dine under the stars surrounded by lush foliage, hear the beat of the Cuban drums and watch the exotically costumed dancers perform to Latin rhythms in an extravaganza that fills the stage and extends to platforms high in the tree tops.

Newcomers to the Gilbert Lake area are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Mills of 5328 Lauren court. The Mills have two sons, Herbie, 9, and Bobby, 5, who both attend Vaughan school. Mrs. Mills is interested in the Scout work and with two youngsters like Herbie and Bobby, housekeeping is almost a full time job, but Mrs. Mills admits that she likes it.

The household pets include a collie dog and a tom cat who maintained a Damon & Pythias relationship until recently when Mr. Cat, neither heeding the call of the wild or bewitched by his new suburban surroundings, wandered away. The big gray and brown cat is missed by his canine pal and by the whole family.

Mills is with Mills Products of Walnut Lake.

Welcome to Dr. and Mrs. Harold Crews of 6062 Snowshow circle. The Crews have a daughter, Mrs. John B. Brabant of Birmingham, and a son, Tom, who lives in Chicago.

Dr. Crews is fond of golf and does most of his playing down at the Detroit Golf club. Mrs. Crew's hobby is antiques, and she owns the antique shop at the corner of Frank and Hardy in Birmingham.

ATTEND PREMIERE
Bagley avenue, Detroit, looked somewhat like Hollywood boulevard last week with the big searchlights flooding the evening skies with their white beams, the limousines piling up to the theatre entrance, the huge floral displays and the milling crowds.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dusseau were at Cliff Bell's for dinner then went on to the premiere of "Oklahoma!" They saw cinema stars Shirley Jones and Gordon MacCrae who were attending the opening here and then heard them sing the Rogers and Hammerstein scores from the big screen. The Dusseaus live on north Millway.
