Many New Residents Move From Detroit to North Adams

Newcomers to North Adams are Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Perry, 24 Manor Court. They moved recently from Detroit. Mr. Perry is vice president of Conn Perry Mfg. Co. They have three children, Rich, S. Lee, 6 and Reid, 4.

Mr. Perry is a member of the Harvard Business School club and a fencing coach at the University of Detroit. He is also a member of the Birmingham Fencing club and holds a membership in the D.A.C.

The Harold Hatmakers of 2966 Lanerzan drive are also new in the area. They lived previously in the city. Mr. Hatmaker is the service manager for Floyd Floren Ford agency in Ferndale. Their three children are Jim, 9, Billy, 4 and Audrey, 2½. The Hatmakers and son Jim are bowling enthusiasts, and each belongs to a league.

Other newcomers are Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Rowland of 2821 Lanerzan drive. They lived for many years at 596 Argyle in Birmingham and the Birmingham Chorale Ensemble under the direction of Gertrude Heinz Greer.

Janet Martin studied as a child with her mother. Later at Stephens College she continued with Dr. Basil Gauntlett. Now she is a pupil of Misha Kottler. In the summer of 1954 she performed as guest artist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

THE BIRMINGHAM Chorale

Piano Solos Chorale Group For Musical

March 8 is the next meeting of the Birmingham Musicals. Mrs. Robert B. Hawkins will preside as Chairman of the Day.

The program will include piano selections by Janet Wherry Martin and the Birmingham Chorale Ensemble under the direction of Gertrude Heinz Greer.

Ensemble is well known to all in this vicinity. Their program numbers will be taken from the German romantics. Accompanying the group on the piano will be Margaret Clifton and on the violin, Jean Elder Hohmeyer.

A quartet consisting of Ruth Carlson, Gertrude Ferguson, Nancy Ranke, Carol Hallas, Margaret Livesey, Helen Bouchard and Molly Kinney will be heard also.

POURING at the tea table following the program will be Mrs. Bessie McMechan and Mrs. William S. Woodman. The Tea Committee is under the Chairmanship of Mrs. N. L. Mudd. Her assistants are Mrs. Mark H. Frank, Mrs. Pearl Robinson, Mrs. Webster Scheifele, Mrs. F. W. Lines and Mrs. Laurence Thomas.

The Stage Committee has Mrs. Grant Watt as Chairman assisted by Mrs. William Simpson and Mrs. Lyle Passmore.

Hostesses for this day are Mrs. Henry E. Edwards and Mrs. Chester B. McCormick.

B'ham Hammond Organ Society Plans Program

With Easter just around the corner, the Birmingham Hammond Organ Society hopes to capture some spirit of the season when the group meets at Grinnell's Birmingham store Wednesday evening at 8.

Eleanor Hasenzahl, a teen age member, has been appointed by President Floyd Bunt, to provide guest talent for the meeting. Mr. Bunt reports that the program promises to be interesting as well as entertaining. He thinks it will be one that all members should make an extra effort to attend.

GUEST organist for the evening will be Alice Marie Walters of Hazel Park. Mrs. Walters, a 1952 graduate of Ohio State university, majored in music with specialization in pipe organ.

Presently, she is an elementary school teacher in Hazel Park, as well as organist for the First Baptist church, Berkeley.

Her recital will include works of the great masters, along with music in the more modern field. Some Easter music is planned.

ALSO ON the program, will be two vocalists: Rose Jorgenson, soprano, and Joseph Davis, baritone. Mrs. Jorgenson, soloist at First Methodist church, Pontiac, and a member of the Pontiac Tuesday Musical chorus, will sing "Now Sleep the Crimson Petal" with words by Tennyson and music by Robert Quilter. She and Mr. Davis will present "In Your Easter Bonnet" as a duet.

Mr. Davis, who is a member of the Birmingham police department, sang solos with the Blue Jackets choir while in the navy. Prior to that, he sang in opera and oratorio presentations in college.

HE HAS sung with the Detroit Conservatory of Music mixed quartet, as well as leads with the Detroit Opera society. Recently, he was featured as a soloist and quartet member in the Sing a Song cycle at the Detroit Institute of Arts. He is a soloist at Central Methodist church, Pontiac.

Members of the society will also appear on the program. Carl B. Stringer, Mrs. A. Florn, Mrs. C. E. Edward, Norman Flemington and Lucile McMurris, will be featured organists from the group.

Visitors from East

Houseguests at the Madison avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Davis are their daughter, Mrs. William H. Pruden, II, and her two year old son, William III. They are visiting here from Ho-Ho-Kus, N. J. for two weeks.

The Roderick A. Campbell, Jr. family have just moved into their new contemporary home at 2565 Paddington drive. They formerly lived at 14136 Riverview in Detroit. They have a daughter, Susan, 6 months old.

Mr. Campbell is an engineer with Larin-Armstrong. The Campbells are very sports-minded. Among their favorites are golf, swimming and horseback riding.

More new residents are Mr. and Mrs. Marcus J. Green of 3695 Adams road, former Detroiters. Mr. Green operates the Century Saw and Tool Company on Mt. Elliott in Detroit. They look forward to their frequent visits to their summer home in Northern Michigan.

These are busy and happy days for Mrs. Albert Eckfeld of 1068 East Long Lake road, having just returned from a visit with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Calvin of South Bend, Ind.

She is now leaving for New Hartford, N. Y., to be with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. Abbott Chapman. A highlight of her stay will be the celebration of her birthday along with that of her grandson Douglas on March 4. Little grandson David will help them enjoy their birthdays.

The marriage of Jacquelyn Kengel and Walter Waidon of Pontiac was solemnized Friday, Feb. 17 at the First Congregational Church of Dearborn. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. William Salton also of Pontiac.

The newlyweds are presently living with the bride's mother, Mrs. John A. Lamb of 2755 Juniper court. They hope to move into their new home in Waterford sometime this month.

Mr. John Lamb, son of Mrs. John A. Lamb is returning this week from Camp Hood, Texas after a year's service.

Mrs. C. S. Maxwell and Mrs. George F. Jeffers of Hylane had a thrilling and similar experience. Mrs. Robert Jessup of Hanna avenue, daughter of Mrs. Maxwell gave birth to a daughter, Lori Kay, Feb. 5. On the same day Mrs. F. A. Jeffers of Maryland, daughter-in-law of Mrs. George Jeffers, gave birth to a son, Scott Tracy. The new mothers are close friends. The "small fry" left at home were cared for by the grandmothers.

Mrs. C. S. Maxwell of Hylane has as her house guest, her sister Mrs. E. A. Lau of Wisconsin along with her daughter and grand daughter, Mrs. E. Rabun Swint, and 9-year-old Susan of New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kloor of 2365 Lanerzan drive departed Feb. 22 for New York City. They plan to see a couple of Broadway shows, prior to taking a South American cruise.
