Jack E. Bernos Return From Florida Vacation

Arriving aboard Eastern Airlines Golden Falcon were Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Berno of Jackson Park lane. The Bernos were returning from two weeks at Key Biscayne, Fla., also called the "Island of paradise."

"Home" was at the Key Biscayne hotel, complete with ocean swimming as well as two pools, tennis (which Mr. Berno is most enthusiastic about) and a pitch-and-putt golf course. The island is just south of Miami Beach so the Bernos took in Hialeah several times and the new and exotic Lays club.

They also saw Motorama, and another were spectators at a jai-alai game. From lounge chairs they viewed the play at the Fronton, a really fascinating place according to Mrs. Berno.

Mrs. Berno met her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Smith, for a day in Fort Lauderdale. The Smiths spent their summers in Mansfield, Ohio and their winters in Orlando, Fla.

The Bernos had a rather peculiar start to their vacation. They had reservations on the midnight plane so they left home in the late afternoon in order to dine down in the hotel and to see Guys and Dolls and then made for the airport.

When they arrived at Willow Run they discovered their flight was grounded. Rather than go through the goodbyes they stayed away from home and spent the night at the Statter hotel. They were able to resume their trip the following day.

The Thursday after the Bernos

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Tiedeman of Middlebury Lane in Westchester Village. The former Birmingham residents have four children, Jeanne, 14, who goes to Birmingham high, Catherine, 12, and Deborah, 5, attending Bloomfield Village school, and Amy, 4, who goes to Westmaple Nursery school.

Tiedeman was a student at P. W. Leistikoff and now is an engineer with Wayne Bros., Inc. He is very interested in amateur radio work. Mrs. Tiedeman belongs to the Birmingham Musicale and the family's church is the Redeemer Lutheran Church.

Being in the building business is particularly nice when a lovely home of your own is one result. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bogdanski's new yellow brick ranch home on West Lincoln drive in Kennington, The Bogdanskis moved from northeast Detroit just before Christmas. They have three children, Richard Jr., 12, a scout, and Gregory, 9, both students at Holy Name school, and Bonnie, 3.

Mr. Bogdanski, besides being a builder does land developing, and for diversion enjoys bowling and goes deer hunting every year. He also is a member of northeast Optimists club in Detroit. Mrs. Bogdanski gives her husband lots of assistance and is looking forward to gardening this spring.

East Beverly Robert Davis Family Are Newcomers from Virginia

Dorothy Kelly MI 4-7771

Mr. and Mrs. Barton G. Dizik moved from 16969 Elizabeth several weeks ago to St. Simons Island, Ga. Their 11-year-old daughter Dana regretted leaving her friends but was looking forward to living on an island resort spot.

The Robert Davises and two sons, Bill, 2, and Bing, 8, formerly of Alexandria, Va., didn't let much time elapse before they moved into the former Dizik home.

Davis is a graduate of Amnapolis and Mrs. Davis received her BS degree in commercial education from Mary Washington college in Fredericksburg, Va.

The Davises are bridge enthusiasts and he is looking forward to the golfing season. He is a member of the National Office Management Association and is a sales supervisor for Addressograph-Multigraph Corp.

Last week Mrs. Lawrence Gifford gave a neighborhood coffee to introduce Mrs. Davis. Present were Mrs. William Cloutier, Mrs. Dan Kampaal, Mrs. Richard Blackhall, Mrs. Henry Zaidema and Mrs. William Goetterman.

Nine couples weathered the icy weather last Friday night to reach the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Devine on Burkingham for an evening of duplicate bridge.

Present were the William Finnelly, Edward Barlows, Joseph Campions, Matt Setinas, Anthony Walters, the Hall Ellisons, Adam Zimmermans, the Ed Auttersons and the Jim Browns.

Mrs. William Goetterman, 16950 Elizabeth, vice president of the North Rosedale Garden club is program chairman for the group's meeting March 9.

The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. D. Chambers, 16850 Glastonbury road, and will feature Easter floral arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brundrett and sons Bruce and Scott of Auburn drive will move this week to their new home at 6641 East Darlmoor drive in Bloomfield Farms.

On Tuesday Irene Anderson gave a neighborhood coffee honoring Mrs. Brundrett, and invited new Auburn drive residents, Mrs. James Clark and Mrs. William Gross.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barch, 31829 Verona Circle hosted their potluck dinner club Saturday evening. After feasting on fried chicken and all the trimmings, they settled down to Canasta. Guests were the Roy Andes, Andy Holma, Hugh Muncies, the Ferdinand Radsons and the Carl Armbrusts.

Mr. and Mrs. George Billerman of Cold Water, Ohio were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Thomas of 17124 Birwood.

BAPTIZED SUNDAY

Carol Anne, eight-week old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gifford was baptized Sunday by the Rev. Harold E. Towne at St. James Episcopal church in Birmingham. She was dressed in a white, hand-embroidered gown, worn by her mother at her baptismal ceremony.

God-parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Clark, her maternal grandparents and her aunt, Barbara Clark of Magnolia. Following the services they returned to a Gifford home on Elizabeth for a family dinner. The Giffords also have a son, David, 16 months old.

Chairman Reports On Blood Bank

W. BLOOMFIELD — Mrs. Otis Fockler, of West Maple road, who worked as general chairman of the interdenominational Blood Bank which services the area west of Telegraph road in Bloomfield and West of Bloomfield townships, is pleased with the success of the recent Bloodmobile visit to the West Bloomfield township hall.

She reports all areas well represented in the donations, and extends thanks to all of the recruiters who made contacts, to the donors and to the volunteer personnel for the day, all of whom contributed to this success.
