

School Official Talks to Pi Phis

Members of the Bloomfield Hills Alumnae club of Pi Beta Phi met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. William Douglas, 215 Fairfax, Birmingham.

Following luncheon, the Pi Phis heard Richard Featherstone, administrative assistant to the superintendent of Birmingham schools, speak about the present and future of our Birmingham schools.

Featherstone pointed out how statistics aid as a guide in school planning, and how we, as a suburban community have been confronted with an enormous number of "growing pains" because our school age population has increased at such a rapid rate over the past few years.

Hostesses for the luncheon were Mrs. G. T. Christiansen, Mrs. Robert Harvie, Mrs. Arthur Bull and Mrs. Lloyd T. Smith.

FACULTY MEMBERS of Baldwin school will play a prominent part in the Baldwin PTA meeting to be held Monday, March 19, at 8 p.m. in the school gym. The nature of the program is not being disclosed until the meeting when "Operation 206" will be revealed. Participants are (from left) Marjorie Campion, Dottie Rossetti, Jean Pomnichowski, Marilyn Scheel, L. D. Sauvage and Jeanne Killoran.
