Six High Schools To Participate In Speech Contest

The district speech contest will be at Birmingham high school next Tuesday, competing schools including Birmingham, Hazel Park, Berkeley, Mt. Clemons, and Detroit Holy Redeemer.

Declaration, original oratory, and extemporaneous speech begin at 1 p.m., and humorous and interpretative readings at 7:30 p.m. Judges are Prof. George Bohman, head of the speech department at Wayne, and Detroit Holy Redeemer.

Maybe you wonder, too, whether to put a "Mr." or "Mrs." in front of your signature, or a "Jr." or "Sr." after it, when you sign your name on a legal document or a contract to buy something. Also, what about your middle name or initial?

I checked this all with my lawyer recently when I sold a little piece of property to a young friend of mine—Jim Jones and his new wife for the home they're going to build.

BHS Aquabelles Ready 'Toyland' Water Ballet

"Toyland, toyland, wonderful girl boy land!" Like the words of the song, Bar-nam pool will be transformed into Toyland next Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, March 22-24, when the Aquabelles of Birmingham high school present their annual water ballet.

Nina Slawson, narrator, takes the part of the fairy godmother. She will wave her magic wand to create such whimsical creatures as Hansel and Gretel, wooden soldiers, and a toy band.

MICÉ, DUCKS, teddy bears, hunnies and other animals appealing to inhabitants of girl and boy land will appear.

Solos will be performed by Beverly Ford as the dancing doll, and Gail Christie, portraying Peter Pan.

Under direction of Miss Sally Reid and Miss Judy Stevenson, the show is at 7:30 Thursday and 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

OTHER ACTS include rainbow, Jack-in-the-box, and a diving egg.

Officers of Aquabelles are Beverly Ford, president; Jane Severs, secretary and Judy Krempa, treasurer.

A social worker visiting a prison was much impressed by the melancholy attitude of one man she found. "My poor man," she sympathized, "what is the length of your term?" "Depends on politics, lady," replied the melancholy one. "It's the warden."
