GOP Women Meet at Headquarters

The Recreation room in the home of Mrs. Howard Liverance, 416 Hawthorne, has taken on a serious look now that it has become the Republican County Finance Committee Headquarters for the Women's Division.

Hard-working chairman, Mrs. Brooks Marshall with her equally diligent vice chairman, Mrs. Liverance and secretary, Mrs. Homes Barnard met with all the township chairmen there on Tuesday.

AMONG THEM were Mrs. Richard Eberline from Avon Township, Mrs. W. W. Williams from Birmingham, Mrs. John Finnegan from Bloomfield, Mrs. Edward Moseman from Farmington, Mrs. Rolfe Smith from Independence, Mrs. Arthur Dodge and Mrs. Jack Rothberg from Lake Angelus, Mrs. Halsey Davidson from Lake Orion, Mrs. Bruce Beamer from Oxford and Mrs. H. A. Koenig from Pleasant Ridge.

Others included Mrs. Robert Lamb and Mrs. John Swint from Royal Oak, Mrs. Herbert Smith from Southfield, Mrs. Robert Stacey from Troy, Mrs. Bruce Annett from Waterford and Mrs. Walter D. Appel with Miss Elaine Appel from West Bloomfield—all are acting as chairmen for their various Townships.

PROSPECT files are the work of the moment, looking toward the beginning of the spring Republican drive for funds for the fall elections. The "Kick-Off" will be April 19th at a meeting at the Birmingham Community House.

IS PROUD TO PRESENT—

RAY-O-LITE

TRANSLUCENT FIBERGLASS AWNINGS

now! protective beauty... that pays for itself

RAY-O-LITE awnings offer beauty and protection without the drab darkness of old-fashioned awnings. On windows, doorways, terraces and patios, Ray-O-Lite gives full protection from sun, rain, snow... but brightens interiors with soft diffused light. And these jewel-like awnings are tough: can't rip... hail won't dent them... never need paint because the colors are built in. Years of maintenance-free service means such big savings that Ray-O-Lite awnings pay for themselves! You can depend on the skilled craftsmanship and integrity of Ray-O-Lite.

Raymond Loewy Associates, top-flight designers, created these beautiful and practical awnings.
