Walnut Lake Area Musicians Compose Church Anthems

WALNUT LAKE—in a recent speaker service sponsored by the Michigan Composer's Club and held in the Central Methodist church of Detroit, two localities were honored, the church organist, Frederick L. Marriott of East Dartmouth road, and John Phelps, well-known Walnut Lake music teacher.

Marriott played an anthem of his own composition, "The Lord Shall Live by Faith," and two anthems composed by Phelps, "May the Love of God Unite Us" and "Blessed is the Man."

By Phelps also was an organ composition, "Chant Mystique." The anthems were sung by the church choir, augmented by singers from this area, including Mrs. Donald Kendall Doman, Mrs. Marguerite Williamson and Carl Christensen.

AN EASTER anthem composed by Phelps is being performed for the second year at the St. James Episcopal church of Birmingham, and another has been used by numerous high school choruses.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Phelps served as one of the host couples at the final concert of Pro Musica in the Detroit Art Institute. Phelps is a member of the board of Pro Musica, and he and his wife have been on the list-of-honors at concerts given by the organization for the last four years.

The previous evening Phelps sang on a program given by the Schoolmen's Chorus, a group with which he is an active and enthusiastic member.
