From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Information "On The Line"

I was reading the other day how a person can get all sorts of things just by dialing a number on his telephone.

In New York you can get the time, the weather, or a prayer. In Philadelphia it's the stock reports. In Boston a voice tells bird watchers what's to be watched in the park.

Over in Europe, they go further. Vienna offers a five-minute fairy tale for kids. In Switzerland you can get the news in any of three languages. And a couple of places have "talking menus" for desperate housewives.

From where I sit, it doesn't matter if ideas are put out by telephone, through editorials, or in person—as long as we can take them or leave them. I happen to like a glass of beer with my supper. You may prefer coffee, tea or branch water. Well, there's no harm in "listening" to another's opinions... but if he should try to force them on you, it's always an American's privilege to simply "hang up."

MRS. DEAN VINCENT FIRTH

Sally McDonald Wears Italian Silk Taffeta

Sally Otis McDonald wore a gown of Italian silk taffeta with applied lace bodice and chapel train when she spoke her vows to Dean Vincent Firth last Friday evening.

Her illusion veil was caught at either side by dainty sprigs of orange blossom and she carried freesia with eucharist lilies.

Rev. Robert DeWitt performed the marriage ceremony in Christ church, Cranbrook.

The bride is the daughter of Clifford James McDonald of Cranbrook road, Birmingham, and the late Mrs. McDonald. Her bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean S. Firth, Franklin.

MRS. Harry A. Toulmin, Jr. was honor matron and bridesmaids were Martha McDonald and Mrs. Edward O. Penney, Jr. All were gowned in ice mist peau de soie. John Sanders McDonald was best man. Ushers were Harry A. Toulmin, Jr., Edward O. Penney, Jr., Robert A. Cole and Herbert A. Beyer, Jr.
