Andrew Jokinen Return From 3-month Finland Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jokinen, who left Dec. 17 for Tampere, Finland, especially to be there for his mother's 75th birthday, have returned to their home on North Greenbrier.

They also visited Jokinen's four brothers, Kalle, Reino, Heikki and Urho and managed to visit with her mother's cousins by telephone. Jokinen came to the United States when he was 18 years old. They made this trip by plane.

They ran into temperatures as low as 41 below zero when the forests were white with frost. Mrs. Jokinen fell in love with the country and its hospitable people, especially the happy and mannerly children.

VACATIONERS RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Steels have returned to their home on north Cromwell after a few days in New York and a visit in Philadelphia, with former Franklin neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Broders.

Back from a Mexican holiday on which they left Feb. 15 are the George Callins, Franklin road. Flying both ways, they established vacation headquarters at Mexico City and Acapulco.

Mrs. Arthur Boehm, of Woodlora drive, is back from a four-week visit with her parents, the D. F. Brodericks, at their place in Miami Beach.

Hal Newhouser, Franklinit of Tiger baseball fame, is now official scout in the State of Michigan for the Baltimore Orioles. He left last Monday to spend three weeks at the Orioles' minor league training camp at Thomasville, Ga., before going on to Tampa, Fla., and to the Orioles' own camp at Scottsville, Ariz.

The Robert Hampsons are back in their place on Woodlora after a flying trip to spend a week in her home town of Martinsville, Va. There they were the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Gravely, while they attended the wedding of her brother.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Carlton Bell were hosts at an open house at their home on Brandingham road last Sunday afternoon, planned so that 60 friends from Franklin, Bir-
