

General Agency Opportunity In Birmingham

One of America's fastest growing major companies offers the opportunity of a lifetime to an ambitious man who really wants to go places in 1956.

With over two billions of insurance in force, our Franklin expansion plans include general-agency development in this area.

We are seeking a proven personal producer who has ability to organize, attract and handle successful men. He should be financially solvent and ambitious to earn $20,000 or more annually. If you feel that you are the man we want, call collect or write me in confidence.

Henderson Heads Fund-Raising Drive For Duke University

DURHAM, N. C. — Edward L. Henderson, of 506 N. Glenhurst, Birmingham, heads the annual campaign for funds for Duke university in the Birmingham area.

In announcing the appointment of Henderson, Duke President Hollis Edens stated, "The financial needs of Duke, as is the case with almost every privately supported college and university, are constantly pressing.

"Unrestricted funds are needed, not simply to sustain existence, but to assure the highest quality in our educational activities.

The 1955-56 loyalty fund has a goal of $225,000 to be met by June 30, 1956.

Henderson will appoint other area Duke alumni to assist in the drive, during which an attempt will be made to reach all former Duke students.
