Shepherd Lutheran Church School To Open in Sept.

Formation of a Christian Day School at Our Shepherd Lutheran church, E. Fourteen Mile, moved forward to reality this week as 25-year-old, Chicago-born and Christian accepted the call as principal of the church school. It is expected to open in September.

He will visit the Birmingham church in April and survey the work to be done for the September school opening. He is expected to be aided by two women teachers for an enrollment estimated at as high as 100 pupils in the first six grades.

A TEACHER'S SON, Christian has been teaching at the Grace Lutheran Church School, New Albany, Ind., for the past two years. He will bring with him his wife, who has also taught in Lutheran elementary schools.

MEANWHILE, School Board Members Dr. Mahlon Ponton, Otto Gombert, Harold Meyer, continue to study proper school facilities for Birmingham's first Lutheran Day school.
