

Every generation produces its boys and girls who, in spite of the environment of either wealth or poverty, are destined to become successful adults. Within them burns—even they are first—the beckoning light of self-development, ambition, self-reliance, faith!

College Students Keep Busy Schedule

Today's college students have more to look forward to than just plain old studies. In-between and after study hours are full of activities varying from rush parties . . . pledges, stage plays, variety shows or even traveling on concert presentations.

The Hope college Symphonette of 24 pieces at Holland has scheduled a Midwestern tour covering the states of Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota and South Dakota.

Nancy Jean Kannels, daughter of the Floyd Kannels, 1172 East Kuffner, Birmingham, will be among those leaving April 2 for the first concert in St. Anne Reformed church in Illinois and will return to Holland April 14.

THREE AREA GIRLS were among the students of Saint Mary's college, Notre Dame, Ind., who participated in the tenth annual variety show this year.

They were Roberta Massey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Massey, 975 Mohegan, Birmingham; Margaret Balder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Balder, 407 Williamsburg, Birmingham; and Patricia Bauerer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Bauerer, 1471 Gilengary, Bloomfield Village.

The Masseys and the Bauerers also attended the parents weekend activities.

ANN FREEMONT, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Freemont, 611 Lakeview, a sophomore, and Joan Glasford, daughter of Fred Glasford, 156 Linden road, a freshman, recently became pledges of Chi Omega and Kappa Kappa Gamma social sororities respectively, on the Hillsdale campus.

Initiated into Delta Delta Delta at the University of Michigan recently were Joan Fairbairn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fairbairn, 1090 Puritan, and Ann Jensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Jensen of Birmingham.

RICHARD Charles Canfield, William Edward Kimbrough and Howard Thompson Leavenworth pledged fraternities at the University of Michigan following the spring semester rushing period. The boys were feted at dinners, smokers and openhouses before making the final decision.

Richard of 446 Wallesey is a Lambda Chi Alpha, William, 3501 Bradley boulevard, a Phi Kappa Psi, and Howard, formerly of 1022 Dorchester, Lambda Chi Alpha.

AMONG the students at the University of Michigan who have received engineering research institute scholarships is Gordon H. Robinson, 18865 Hillcrest, Birmingham. To be eligible he had to be employed by the Institute on at least a half-time basis for a year.

Gordon, winner of the ERI scholarship, has been employed on a number of projects dealing with the ignition of rocket propellants and has recently become a member of the electronic defense group.

Shamrock Luncheon and Fashion Show

MRS. HENRY GUENTHER (left), Mrs. Donald Kalmbach and Mrs. Frank Starob, Sewing group members, arrange display of garments made by group. Last year's Hostess club social chairman, Mrs. John Power, commentator, details costumes modeled in the fashion show following the shamrock luncheon. Casual dress, cocktail and evening fashions, as well as accessories were shown.

Wearing their new spring hats, more than 350 members and guests of the West Beverly Hostess club thronged the Birmingham Country club last week for the annual spring club event.

Named this year the Shamrock luncheon and fashion show, shimmery green shamrocks and tall green hats were evident throughout the club rooms and green predominated the color scheme.

Social chairman of the group was Mrs. B. John Mitchell, 18184 Kinross. Mrs. Charles Vogel, chairman, Mrs. Robert Johnson and Mrs. R. P. Gauchon were in charge of ticket sales for the event.

Prizes were won by Mrs. John Harting, chairman, assisted by a committee of eight. Making up a many shamrocks, large and small, and other green decorations were Mrs. Glen Freeman, Mrs. Samuel Whittlesey, Mrs. Earl Hope and Mrs. Frank Keefer.

AS SMARTLY dressed as the models she introduced, was Mrs. John Powers, who commented on fashions shown by Milgrim's following luncheon.

In one of the club rooms, hand made garments were displayed, made by the West Beverly Sewing group, a unit of the Hostess club. Pretty and practical were the gowns, dresses, infants' wear, crib blankets, sleeping apparel all made by the nimble fingers of Sewing group members.

Proceeds from the Shamrock event will be given to the Sewing Group to buy new materials. Articles made by the group are given to the Needlework Guild and other charitable organizations.

Mrs. Gene White Named President Of Junior League

On Tuesday, the Junior League of Birmingham held its annual election of officers at a luncheon meeting at the Oakland Hills Country club.

Four new officers were elected to take office this June. For the next two years Mrs. Gene A. White will take Mrs. George Squibb's place as president of the League. Mrs. Arvel Mason will assume the position of vice-president. Mrs. Milton Coleson, the role of corresponding secretary, taking the place of Mrs. Harts Grether and Mrs. George A. Maxted will continue as assistant treasurer.

IN ADDITION to the election of officers a highlight of the luncheon was the donation of spring hats by the membership to the League resale shop.

The hats will be featured in the Easter sale of nearly new merchandise at the shop. Proceeds from the shop go to the League's welfare fund and eventually are returned to the Community through various projects such as the Child Guidance Clinic and the Senior Workshop.

On March 28th, Mrs. Don A. Carrell will hold the monthly dessert luncheon for the Transfer members of the League at the home of Mrs. Rudolph Eberstadt, Jr.
