Ralph Mark Home Scene Of Pre-Nuptial Shower

The Ralph Mark home on Glangary Circle was the scene of a large shower given recently by Mrs. Don Ritter, the Mark's daughter, and Mrs. Jon Rogers in honor of Barbara Stauffer and her fiancé, Ray Christinson. The 42 guests attending included many from Ray's classes in the law school at the University of Michigan.

Ralph Mark Jr., home from Tennessee Military academy at Sweetwater, Tenn., for his spring vacation shares the same natal date as his sister Kay, March 12. Kay celebrated her 10th birthday by inviting ten little guests for dinner at the Recess club to celebrate the event, while Ralph chose to entertain 20 of his friends at a party in the Mark home Saturday evening.

Among those attending were Jane McKinley, Gary Mowg, Karen Bennett, Phil Lebell, Julia Miller and Mike Hall, Emily Miner and Don Dawson and Emmy Lou Desler of Greese Pointe.

Juanita Christie, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward A. Christie of Ardmore entertained the Moment Musical club at a Saint Patrick's day celebration in her home Tuesday evening. Irish music, of course, was the theme, of the group of 25 musical students. Rita is a student at St. Hugo of the Hills.

A flying trip to the South was all that they had anticipated, said Mrs. Marvin L. Kanke of Overhill road. But Mrs. and Mrs. Katha have just returned from a three weeks trip to Florida which included staying at the South Haven hotel in Fort Lauderdale and at the Bucaneer at Marathon.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Taranen of Woodale Court and daughters Lisa and Cindy, have spent the last several weeks vacationing at the Sundown ranch in Scottsdale, Ariz.

Mrs. William Chisholm and her six year old daughter, Janet spent last weekend in Woodstock, Ontario visiting Mrs. Chisholm's mother, Mrs. William Shelby. The visit had special significance as Mrs. Shelby was celebrating her 81st birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Armstrong have just returned to their Roland drive home after a week's stay at Oisego.

Richard Caldwell was home last weekend visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Caldwell of Tuckaloe road. Richard is in his freshman year at Western State College in Kalamazoo.

The Carl F. Beiers of Bradway boulevard are looking forward to the Easter weekend when they with their daughter Nancy, and other members of the family will travel on a leisurely trip through the East sightseeing, and visiting numerous college campuses which will enable Nancy to decide which college she would like to attend several years hence.

Linda Curry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Curry, also of Bradway boulevard, in her freshman year at the University of Michigan, will be spending her Spring vacation with her roommate, Diane McElroy of La Grange, Ill.

The Walter Zielke family of Westwood drive are new to the village, having moved here from Rosedale Park. Mr. Zielke is affiliated with Fisher Body.

The Zielkes have four children, Mrs. Raymond Conlon, a married daughter, who soon will be moving from Detroit to Birmingham; Lois in her sophomore year at the University of Detroit; Bob, a senior at Catholic Central and Donald, who attends Harbour Hall military
