Dads', Daughters' Party
 Easter Weekend Event

Birmingham and Bloomfield members of the Detroit Athletic Club will share two bigtime Easter events at the downtown clubhouse with the members from Detroit and Grosse Pointe.
 First is the annual Fathers and Daughters Party, slated for Easter Saturday afternoon, March 31. Second will be the dinner-dancing floorshow festivity to start that same evening and continue for the six nights of the following week, concluding April 7.
 The dads and daughters' will gather at 12:30 o'clock for their feast. An aquatic exhibition at the club pool will be followed by luncheon in the gymnasium and the Pontchartrain room. The popular party always had a capacity total of 700 present.
 IT'S SCHEDULED traditionally for Easter Saturday so daughters on vacation from boarding schools and colleges may attend, along with little girls, grown daughters, fathers and grandfathers.
 Party finale will be a stage show. It will present the same entertain-

Air Force Lieutenant Marries Elissa Levely

Lt. Eric Wright Heizer claimed Elissa Joan Levely as his bride at a noon ceremony Saturday in Holy Name church before members of the immediate families and close friends. Rev. Eugene Paddock read the double ring rites.
 Her ballerina length gown of pearly silk, fashioned with a boat-neckline, was trimmed with iridescent and seed pearls. The fitted bodice molded into a long waist-line. Her veil fell from a headpiece of iridescent and seed pearls to the tip of her skirt. She carried a cascade of purple-white orchids, white roses and ivy.
 Elissa is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ployd A. Levely of Pontiac. The Randolph Heizers, 466 Harmon, Birmingham, are the parents of the groom.
 SHIRLEY SINGOS of Eton Cross road, Bloomfield Hills, was her maid of honor and only at-

Geese Eat Rice
 Humpty Doo, Australia — The efforts of an American-British Australian company to make a barren tract of Northern Australia bloom with rice fields are being defeated by massive clouds of geese, measuring as much as 3 miles across. The geese eat the rice as fast as it is sown and guns by day and lanterns, flares and explosions by night so far have failed to control the birds.
 Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all new — call the society editor about them.
