

Local Volunteers Assist County Easter Seal Drive

Volunteers representing Oakland county groups of all kinds are spending afternoons and evenings in club houses, living rooms and Oakland county society for crippled children headquarters, helping crippled children.

So that the 1950 Easter seal campaign gets off on the right footing, these crews of workers are assisting with preparation for the Oakland county society for crippled children's biggest Easter Seal appeal.

Throughout the county and at the headquarters under the Dirmingham Rotary Club members, Matthew Cammareri, area and assistant Easter Seal campaign chairman, and the Southfield Rotary club, Dr. Albert Carfield, area chairman, help prepare the 128,000 envelopes for mailing.

CAMMARERI volunteers' enthusiasm is indicative of Oakland County citizens' interest in helping their crippled neighbors, and an encouraging symbol for crippled children waiting the county's financial help.

The month-long campaign is being conducted simultaneously by crippled children's societies across the nation, March 10 to April 10.

Introducing New Columnist For Area—Mrs. Ted Young

Mrs. Ted Young, 1726 Witherbee, is the new correspondent for the Graefield-Derby area. Mother of two girls, Jacqueline, 10, a pupil of Holy Name school, and Diane, 5, she is a former newspaper writer for a weekly paper in her home town of Pleasantville, N. Y.

The Young family have lived in the area for almost six years. From Graefield, where they spent five years, they moved in June to their new home on Witherbee in Troyton Manor.

Mrs. Young attended the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, and is a member of the recently organized St. Jane Guild of Holy Name church. Mr. and Mrs. Young are members of the Troyton Home Owners association. Mr. Young is connected with Newweek magazine.

Bridge seemed to be the order of the evening Saturday when Mr. and Mrs. Robert Distler of 881 Graefield road, Troyton Manor, had as their guests for the evening Mr. and Mrs. Robert Friesner of Birmingham, while Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Barker of the Graefield Terraces entertained Mr. and Mrs. James Adams of Troyton Manor.

Dr. and Mrs. John P. Thomson of 878 Graefield road, Troyton Manor left by plane last Friday for a two weeks' vacation at Key Vaca, Fla. They plan to concentrate on deep-sea fishing and to experience, for the first time, the thrill of night carp-fishing.

Welcome to newcomers at 1818 Derby road, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Gabert and their two sons, Steven 4, and Douglas, 2, former residents of 1339 Melton road, Birmingham. Mr. Gabert is an architect associated with Giffels and Vallet, Inc. in Detroit. He is a member of the Engineering Society of Detroit and Mrs. Gabert is a member of the Junior Wives group of the same organization. Mr. Gabert plays golf and both enjoy bridge.

Troyton Manor welcomed newcomers Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gurley and their daughters Nancy, 14, Helen Louise, 9, Susan, 7, and Collette, 4½, to 825 Norwich road. The family recently moved from Humphrey street in Birmingham. They are members of the First Methodist church where Mrs. Gurley teaches religious classes. Mrs. Gurley was recently introduced to her immediate neighbors at a tea at the home of Mrs. Henry Allain of 835 Norwich road.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Kennedy Nickell and daughter Amy, 2, of 1025 Graefield road are moving the first of April to Grosse Pointe, former home of Mrs. Nickell. They have been residents of the terraces for over two and a half years.

A group of bridge enthusiasts who meet regularly, gathered at the home of Mrs. Robert Distler, 881 Graefield road Tuesday evening for dessert and bridge. Those present were Mrs. Clyde Mulhern, Mrs. James Carey, Mrs. Roger Cleary, Mrs. Robert Friesner, Mrs. Leo Case, Mrs. James Adams, and
