HAPPY BIRTHDAY

An unforgettable party featuring a magician was celebrated Saturday when for her ninth birthday, Barbara Jean Wall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wall, Colby Lane entertained 15 of her boy and girl friends.

Even though the children were sure they could figure out his tricky tricks, she is still trying to figure out how he could mix up several ingredients in a bowl and produce out of a bunny rabbit. And how did he make those goldfish appear out of nowhere?

Even the favors, little monkeys that really smoke a cigarette and blow smoke rings seemed to possess an air of magic.

Barbara's birthday was really in February but due to illness of several intended guests at the time, it was held in March. Spring parties are still trying to figure out how he could mix up several ingredients in a bowl and produce out of a bunny rabbit. And how did he make those goldfish appear out of nowhere?
