

Lathrup Scouts Stress Meaning of Scout Laws

LATHRUP—Neighborhood Girl Scout leaders and committee members met Monday in Community Church, Fellowship Hall. Theme for the March meeting was based on Girl Scout laws, "A Girl Scout is a friend to all and a sister to every other Girl Scout," and "A Girl Scout is courteous."

Mrs. W. J. Owen, neighborhood chairman, asked leaders to stress these laws at troop meetings to bring their real meaning into everyday practice.

The 16 organized troops now a part of the Lathrup Neighborhood are celebrating Juliette Low's birthday this month with three separate parties.

THROOPS 601, 600, 487, 766, 768 and 767 held their party March 6 in Community Church with 87 girls and 82 fathers attending. Troops 8 and 11 held a father-daughter square dance March 13.

Intermediate and senior troops will hold their box-lunch party with their fathers in Lathrup School auditorium this evening. Theme of the parties is "Americana." Profits will be divided among the troops and will finance activities for the coming year.

MRS. GEORGE JASQUILLARD, cookie chairman, reports Lathrup troops sold 2195 boxes of Girl Scout cookies this year, an increase of 411 boxes over last. Cookie

Two Newcomers Introduced At Neighborhood Luncheon

To introduce two newcomers to her Berkshires neighbors, Mrs. James Traa had a St. Patrick's day luncheon and card party Friday at her home on Jackson Park drive.

Newcomers were Mrs. Robert Peters of Wedgewood drive and Mrs. J. J. O'Loughlin, officially a neighbor when she moves on Chula Vista drive this May.

Guests present were Mrs. F. O. Lawrence, Mrs. Vera Vignone, Mrs. R. Roskilly, Mrs. Robert Denby, Mrs. Arthur Greiner, Mrs. Hope Clarke, Mrs. Robert Morrison, Mrs. Otto Grob, Mrs. John Oberst, Mrs. Walter Markin, Mrs. William Fagarty and Mrs. John Kelley.

Tuesday Mrs. Robert Reason's neighbors said goodnight to their husbands and headed for her home on Old Mill road. Much bridge and just as much conversation took place between Mrs. Charles Dalziel of Greenwood drive, Mrs. Paul Droegge and Mrs. Lee Keating both of Jackson Park, Mrs. Gordon Nyquist, Mrs. Wally Stanley, Mrs. Robert Wink and Mrs. Robert Henderson all of Old Mill road.

Last Thursday was such a pretty day that Mrs. C. V. DiPietro of Lincoln drive invited her neighbors to her home on the spur of the moment. Luncheon was served to Mrs. J. L. Hays, Mrs. W. J. Owen and Mrs. Robert Schaeffer and afterwards bridge was played.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Nyquist's card party Friday night was a family affair. Mrs. Nyquist's sister, Mrs. Harold Anderson and her husband, and her brother Richard Clarke and wife were held at their home on Old Mill road.

Mrs. Buck Sullivan of Hampton drive, left March 19 for Florida air, for an indefinite length of time. She is staying with a friend in Miami and plans to return to Keys and also friends in Lake Worth. Daughter Betty will fly down to join her mother March 30.

Daughter Jean, a freshman at the University of Michigan, will spend her Easter vacation at home, entertaining guests from New York City.

New residents in the Berkshires, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey S. Peters, Wedgewood drive, former at Birmingham, have four grown children. Daughter, Mrs. Gerald Gillin, lives in Columbus, Ohio, and has two children, Mark, 2, and David, 1. Son, Rev. Carl Thomas, is an orphanage in Springfield, Ohio, was ordained and married last June.

Harvey Jr. was married in December and is a senior at Wittenberg college in Springfield. He is affiliated with Pi Kappa fraternity and will enter the seminary this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed is a freshman at Wittenberg and is pledged to Beta Theta Pi fraternity. He is also a member of the junior varsity basketball team.

Mr. Peters is a native Californian and is district sales manager for Giddings and Lewis, a machine tool manufacturing company. The Peters are members of Christ Lutheran church in Detroit. They belong to the Birmingham Golf club and Mrs. Peters is a member of the Berkshire Garden club.

Saturday night 12 guests were invited to dinner at the Peters home in honor of Mr. Peters' birthday. The party turned into a surprise house warming also, and the Peters were presented with a large green house by Mr. and Mrs. George Rutz of Jackson Park drive were among the guests.

NEW TO BERKSHIRES
In the last couple of months the Berkshires have gained two new families. The James Bostwicks of Old Mill road and the Robert McElfreshs of Parkhurst drive.
