

Habit is more firmly attached to one's thought processes than is the power of reason. From habit, perhaps aided by the instinct of self-preservation, one may say harmful things to or about another—read that a negative habit is most dangerous in human relations.

GRADUATING as practical nurses from McAuley School of Nursing at St. Joseph Mercy hospital Sunday will be (from left) Shirley Dusbeier, Joan Vandekerck and Noreen Harrigan. A banquet on Saturday night will precede the ceremonies and on April 20 the graduating class plans a get-together in the form of a dinner party at Devon Gables. Shirley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dusbeier of Auburn road, Southfield Township; Joan lives on Mayfair Lane; and Noreen is the daughter of Mrs. E. F. Harrigan of Greenwood avenue.

TAKING A TWELVE-DAY CRUISE to the Caribbean ports of the Netherlands West Indies, Venezuela and Colombia are Dr. and Mrs. Fred G. Hicks, 1000 Westwood, Birmingham, who sailed from New York last week on the Santa Rosa.

ON BEHALF of Kappa Kappa Gamma, Mrs. Jane Mosher presents a check for $150 to Oliva Viola, representing Birmingham's Child Guidance clinic. The funds, proceeds from Tuesday's benefit-bridge and fashion show, are for the purchase of books for the Junior League's established clinic's medical library. Bookshelf in the photo was also given by KKG. Volunteers from the group will paint the bookshelves and catalogue the books.

THE 125 POUND 6 FOOT TARPON caught by L. F. Sarnes will probably be on record for the season in Key West, Fla. Pictured with the catch are (from left) W. Walker of Bloomfield Hills, Mr. Sarnes of Wingercroft, Bloomfield Township, Mrs. Sarnes, Mrs. Walker and Capt. Curtis Ryan.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS AND BIRMINGHAM branches of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association invited the presidents of all SOC branches to a coffee at the Arlington road home of Mrs. Frank Webb. Purpose was to discuss the Garden Pilgrimage for May 19 and 20. Chatting over a cup of coffee are Mrs. James I. Ford (left) of Bloomfield Hills and Mrs. C. E. Harman of Birmingham.

MRS. WALTER F. KUCKELMAN, 272 Cranbrook road, Birmingham, caught the seven-and-a-half foot sailfish, weighing 50 pounds, at Palm Beach, Florida, where she spent a month recently with her husband. With Mrs. Kuckelman is Captain "Buck" Himber, owner of the fishing launch.

VISITORS TO HAWAII, Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Peterson, 1663 Fairway, Birmingham, plan an extensive tour of the outer islands before returning to the Mainland at the end of the month. While in Honolulu the couple will stay at the Surf Rider hotel on Waikiki.
