

Michigan Tourist Accommodations More and Better

Michigan, out to top the 1955 record travel year, will welcome 1956 travelers with more and better dining and overnight accommodations than ever before, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

"The building boom in the Michigan tourist industry that started at the end of World War II seems to be increasing rather than slackening off," states Jerry E. Fisher, Auto Club touring manager.

Growth and development of motels usually consisted of a group of rustic cabins containing only sleeping facilities and nothing else.

12 Area U of M Freshmen Honored

Twelve area University of Michigan freshmen have been awarded the Oron E. Scott prize for ranking in the top 10 per cent of the freshman class.

OTHERS ARE John McGowan Neff, 916 Kennessaw, Birmingham; Douglas Neal Reinhard, 577 Kimberley, Birmingham; Ellen Louise Schreiber, 18151 Sunnybrook, Southfield township; Richard Robert Silbar, 808 Madison, and Edward Brunck Sisson, 120 Overhill, Birmingham.

Just Chilly?

London—According to the Moscow radio, the mercury fell to 65 below recently in Verkhoyansk, Siberia. However, they said that wasn't bad for Verkhoyansk, where it got down to 90 below back in February of 1892—the coldest on record.

"Private telephones, television, individual heating and air conditioning units are common motel conveniences. Dining facilities are being added at many motels and, even in Michigan, swimming pools for motel guests are not unknown." The Auto Club official pointed out the recent trend toward motel
