MRS. DAVID QUINBY WALKER

Bullen-Walker Rites Burgundy and White

Joyce Ann Bullen exchanged vows and rings with David Quinby Walker in a white and burgundy wedding last Saturday afternoon. Rev. J. W. Wimberly performed the rites in the First Presbyterian church, Jackson, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bullen, Park road, Jackson, are the bride's parents and the groom is the son of Mrs. H. C. Walker, Graefield road, Birmingham, and the late Mr. Walker.

An outlined scoop neck with hand-clipped lace was featured in the bride's gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The pointed bodice topped a ballerina length skirt of tulle over a pointed lace flounce. Her fingertip illusion veil cascaded from a Juliet cap of the lace, with pearl and sequin touches. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and white orchids.

Sandra Fransted, Jackson, was honor attendant; Nancy O'Neil, Winnetka, Ill., and Jean Borland, Oshkosh, Wis., were bridesmaids. All were identically gowned in white jewels.

THEIR tightly fitted, pleated bodices, with scoop neckline, topped fully flared skirts. Their headresses were of openwork burgundy velvet, with circular veils. Their shoes

"I'm sorry, dear, that your clothes are still on the line"

Stuck without a stitch! A clothesline can't dry clothes by itself and sometimes "Old Man Weather" just won't cooperate. But you can put him on the run... have a Gas clothes dryer installed in your home today... dash outside and rescue your duds... toss them into your dryer... wait, but not for long! You'll be amazed at how quickly they are fluffy-dry and ready-to-wear or, if you prefer, damp-dry and ready-to-iron.

Miller-Nielsen Vows Exchanged In Danish Church

Grace Elizabeth Nielsen and Jens E. Miller exchanged vows and rings at a candlelight ceremony Saturday in St. Peter's Danish Evangelical Lutheran church. The Rev. Svend Jorgensen read the 7 o'clock rite before 150 wedding guests. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nielsen, 1487 Emmons, Birmingham. Jens' parents are the Egon Millers of Detroit. Grace wore a floor length gown of nylon tulle and lace over satin. Her fingertip veil fell from a Juliet cap and she carried white roses. Mrs. Paul C. Nielsen, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Joyce Nielsen and Carolyn Nielsen. John Miller was his brother's best man and ushers were Paul C. Nielsen and William Crandall. After a reception in the church parlors the couple left for a wedding trip to New Orleans and Oklahoma.

North Adams Hickory Heights' New Families Are Introduced

New residents in Hickory Heights are enthused over their new homes and are making spring gardening plans. At home are the Edwin Beck family of 4171 Meadowlark Court.

They have three children, Judy, 13, attends Adams, while Barbara, 10, and Thomas, 7, are pupils at Pembroke. Mr. Beck is field engineer with the Square D company. Mr. and Mrs. Beck are interested in bridge and golf.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pettit, formerly of Detroit, reside at 4444 Burney drive. They have a son, Donald, living at home and a daughter who lives on Rockaway drive in Eastover Farms. Mr. Pettit is affiliated with Fisher Body. They are both bowling and gardening enthusiasts.

On April 6 the Pettits are leaving for a three weeks vacation in Florida. One week will be spent in Bel Aire and two weeks in Hollywood.

Charing Cross Estates have more newcomers. The Leon Sapala family, former Detroiters, moved into their new home at 4711 Hadlington Jan. 17. Mr. Sapala is a counselor with the Detroit Board of education, while Mrs. Sapala teaches first grade at Mason school in Redford township. They have three children, Jane, 16, attending Birmingham high, Julie, 18, a Hillsdale college student and Noel, 13, attends Adams. The family are all looking forward to spring weather and gardening.

More newcomers are the J. C. Honhart of 98 Manor road. Their three children are John, 15, attending Birmingham high, Keith, 12, a pupil at Adams and Ann, 8, goes to Tully.

Mr. Honhart operates the Atlas Welding Accessories in Ferndale. Mr. Honhart is interested in big game hunting. His trips take him out west and to Alaska. One trophy is a Kodiak bear he shot in Alaska. Mrs. Honhart's hobbies are music and gardening.
