MRS. ROBERT E. BOURN

Presbyterian Church Scene of Ceremony

Robert Edgar Bourn claimed Gladys Tamar Gray as his bride in an evening ceremony Saturday before 200 wedding guests. The Rev. Paul S. Durham read the double ring rites in the First Presbyterian church of Royal Oak.

Gladys chose a gown of white satin trimmed with hand cut chantilly lace at the neckline of the fitted bodice and at the wrists. The full skirt fell into a chapel train. Her illusion veil fell from a Juliet cap of chantilly lace and white satin trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade arrangement of Eucharis lilies.

AN AFTER-FIVE dress of emerald brodered coes taffeta with matching accessories and a corsage of brown cymbidium orchids were the choice of Mrs. Gray. Robert's mother wore white and pink orchids with her pink ensemble.

After a Northern Michigan wedding trip the couple will make their home in Pontiac.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

THE BRIDE is the daughter of Mrs. William Gray, 4224 Olivia, and the late Mr. Gray. Robert's parents are the Edgar C. Bourns of Pontiac.

Mrs. John Lehmann was matron of honor in a ballerina length princess gown of aqua crystalet with headband of aqua velvet leaves. She carried a cascade of yellow daisies and carnations.

Wearing frocks identical to the honor attendant's were bridesmaids Mrs. Barton Connors and Mrs. Richard Hoffman.

Best man was Donald Cole. Seating the guests were Richard Hoffman and William Gray.
