Return to Willowgreen Home From Flying Florida Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Premo returned to their home on Willowgreen road Monday after a flying vacation to Florida and other parts in their Republic C-B.

They stopped at Winter Park, Fla., to visit a few days with her mother, Mrs. Jennie Hoek, then went on to watch the Speed Week events at Sebring and the stock car races at Atlanta, Ga.

The Robert Egans apple tree lane, has been on a two-week Florida vacation. Spending most of their time at Ft. Lauderdale, they stopped at Winterhaven, also, to visit their nephew, John Buck, who is stationed at the Barry Field Air Force base.

Daughter Sharon will spend her Easter vacation at Winterhaven with her aunt and uncle, the Howard Bucks, of Farmington, and then will fly home.

Ethel Boehm, daughter of the Arthur Boehms, will spend Easter at Ft. Lauderdale.

Mrs. Louis Morse, Jr. was hostess at luncheon at her home on Lone Pine road Wednesday, with Mrs. Arthur Boehm, Mrs. Clifford Dixon, Mrs. W. H. Worcester, Mrs. C. R. Funk, Mrs. Lewis Evans, Mrs. Phillip Cartwright and Mrs. J. Decker as her guests.

The Richard Wendons and the Peter Finns vacationed together at Pompano Beach, Fla., on a two-week holiday. The Finns stayed on another week, making Key West their headquarters, but have since returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hacker, of Colony Hill road, spent the past weekend in Chicago.

Home from Culver Military academy for his spring vacation is Jack Woodburn, son of the Walter Woodburns, Telegraph road. Home from Culver, too, is David Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Scott of Franklin Hills drive, bringing with him as his vacation time guest, Carlos Cantler of Mexico City, his roommate.

Back from a southern vacation are Mr. and Mrs. Grant Sivier and daughter Pamela, who made Juno Beach, Fla., their holiday headquarters.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Pettis have returned to their home on Orinoco circle after a four-week holiday at Hallandale, Fla.

Mrs. Paul Ziegelbar will be hostess at her home on Franklin road Saturday afternoon, at 7 o'clock, honoring Betty Ann Mason whose marriage to George Ziegelbar will take place this May.

GARDEN CLUB
The Franklin Garden Club is to meet at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday.

Six New Families Welcomed To East Beverly Community

Six new area residents are welcomed this week. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Doran moved to 16905 Buckingham just from Ferndale. They have four children: Michael, 4, Kevin, 2, Mr. Doran is employed by the Michigan Bell Telephone company.

Newcomers at 17929 Dublinlane are Mr. and Mrs. James H. Morrey and son Richard, 2, from Rochester, N. Y. Mrs. Morrey taught school in Flint and Washington, D. C. before her marriage and is now a physical therapist in the research lab at Bendix Aviation Corp. Both are U. M. graduates.

From Columbus, Ohio are the Eugene Hananums and children, Mark, 6, Jane, 4 and Jud, 4 months at 22257 Auburn drive. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hananum are graduates of Wittenberg College in Springfield, Ohio. Mr. Hananum is in sales at Armstrong Cork company.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Manning and 16-month-old Robert, Jr., came from Alexandria, La. to live with her sister Mrs. Beatrice Becker at 18056 Birwood. Mr. Manning is a hunter and a fisherman and hopes to enter a lot of both sports in Michigan. Mrs. Manning, interested in learning to play bridge, is continuing to check into bridge classes at the Birmingham Community House. Mr. Manning is with Civil Aeronautics at Wayne Major Airport.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Becker and son Bob, 12, moved to 17941 Birwood from Pompton Plains, N. J. Bob, a seventh grade student at Barham school, bowls with his Presbyterian church Sunday school class and his mother bowls with the Newcomers league. Mrs. Becker and Bob enjoy golf and soon Mrs. Becker will learn to golf, so all three can "walk the day away together."

The Beckers are leaving today for their former New Jersey home to visit relatives and friends during the Easter vacation. Mr. Becker is a salesman and is employed by Tung-Sol Electric.

New residents at 16186 Lauderdale are Mr. and Mrs. Warren Henderson and Carol Lynn, 8, formerly of Cleveland. Carol has attended ballet for several years and is looking forward to continuing her lessons here. Both Mr. and Mrs. Henderson enjoy golf. Mr. Henderson is zone manager for Sherman Products.

The family will leave Tuesday.

Berkshire Hills Association Board Sets New Policies

SOUTHFIELD—Berkshire Hills Protective Association board has formed a new policy to make it easier for members to bring their problems and suggestions before the executive committee.

All executive committee meetings will be open to the membership but five days notice must be given secretary Bert Gatward for necessary accommodations.

A regular meeting date has been set for the last Monday in odd-numbered months. Special meetings will be called in even-numbered months.

Other business discussed at the association meeting held at president Charles Shill's home, was the resignation and its acceptance of board member A. C. Yost and the election of Lyman Craig, Jr., laborer, who will finish Yost's one year term.

Reports of the Valley Woods area was given by chairman Ken Kittle and George Williams representing the south of 35 Mile road.

Appointments of a committee of chairman and a proposed committee chair are also being discussed.

Valley Woods Garden Club Talks on Trees, Shrubs and Lawns

Jack Ball of McClellan-Ball was guest speaker when the Valley Woods branch of the WNFSG met at the Community House for its March meeting.

The branch heard fundamentals of preparing the ground for a lawn and how to care for shrubs and trees properly. An open question followed in which Mr. Ball answered many puzzling questions.

The Valley Woods branch has been asked to help decorate tables for the annual May meeting. Work on the committee along with other branches are Mrs. Robert Gibson, Grosvear road, Mrs. Walter Nyland, Eastlady road, and Mrs. Chester Carlton of Forest lane.

After the business meeting, Mrs. Robert Gibson and her March refreshment committee served tea. Mrs. Marshall Wheatley presented the centerpiece for the tea table which was appropriately decorated with pink and white, pink, shamrocks. Pink candles formed the background and miniature figures, including green pigs, gave it real Irish flavor.

The April meeting will be luncheon on April 10, followed by a tour of the Ford Rotunda floral display. Anyone wishing to attend may call Mrs. Michael Gilme for a reservation and requesting transportation if needed.

Neighbors on Westlady road are bidding goodbye to the Fetzer family. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Fetzer are moving into Birmingham during Easter vacation. At a coffee brunch at the William Harris home on Westlady road, this morning, were Mrs. Chester Savley, Mrs. Ken Kittle and Mrs. William Flajole. Mrs. Fetzer was presented with a small remembrance from the group.

TEEN CLUB
Weather has certainly disrupted plans of the Valley Woods Teen Club. Friday the young people scheduled an evening of roller skating at the roller rink, but plans had to be pushed ahead to Friday, April 13.

Mrs. Gerald Joynt of Smallwood drive, chairman for this month, will again ask mothers and dads to donate an evening chaperoning or driving.

Mothers on the April committee want the teenagers to mark April 28 down on their calendars. This is the date for their hayride and hot dog roast.

VALLEY WOODS HELLO
New residents in the Valley Woods community are Mr. and Mrs. Jack White and family of Smallwood courts. The Whites have two sons, Skippy 8, in the second grade and keeping mother company at home is Ricky, 2. The family, formerly from Amherst road in Birmingham, attend Christ Church Cranbrook.

Mr. White's hobby is working with boys. He is president of Oakland County's Big Brother movement. If any time is available, woodworking is of great interest to him. Jack White is news editor of radio station WJRR.

In residence for a short time now on Cedar Hill are the Zawodni family. James and Winnie and their three children, Robin, 12, and Cathy, 8, attend Beverly school while at home is Jamie, 3½. Mr. Zawodni is vice-president of the Acme Abrasives Co. His hobby is refinishing antique furniture. The Zawodnis attend the Quaker church and are formerly from Beverly Hills.

Wednesday, Mrs. William Harris entertained a group of friends for a monthly "gab-fest". The group have been friends since their kindergarten days in Royal Oak. Dessert and coffee finished off the evening.

Republican Women To Hear Senator
SOUTHFIELD—Senator George Higgins, candidate for U. S. House of Representatives for this district, will speak to Southfield Republican Women's club Thursday, April 5, at 1 p.m. at the Birmingham Community House.

Mrs. Charles Runta, president, reports Senator Higgins will discuss the proposed tariff, as well as his views on governmental matters. The public is invited to attend the meeting.

Planning Board Increase Asked
SOUTHFIELD—Planning Commissioners have recommended that their board be increased from seven to nine members so that a board of education member and a township board member could serve on the committee.

The recommendation added that, in case of a commission vacancy, another township board member be appointed to the plan board.

This move, they say, would keep both governing boards informed on developments in the township.

Okay 100-Acre Plat At Special Meeting
BLOOMFIELD TWP.—Township board members, in a special meeting Tuesday night, approved plat changes for a 100-acre development at the S. W. corner of Telegraph and Maple.

Treasurer Arno L. Hulet, in charge while Supervisor David Anderson is in Florida, said he did not know the name of the owners of the plat.

Our Lady PTA Elects Officers For Coming Year

EAST BEVERLY—New PTA officers for the coming school year were elected at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs PTA meeting last week. Elected were Harold Pierce, president; Mrs. Gordon Goodrich, mother vice president; John Crosby father vice president; Edward Driscoll, treasurer; Mrs. Vincent and Mrs. C. Pat Forbes, corresponding secretary.

Speaker of the evening was Birmingham chief of police, Ralph Moxley, who discussed presentations which should be taught school children in regard to accepting rides or attention from strangers.

Two films, "Dangerous Stranger" and "Name Un known" were shown. The first of these films was shown to Our Lady Queen of Martyrs grade school children, PTA members decided.

Mrs. Milton Young, chairman of announced plans for a PTA card party to be held in the church social hall April 3. Mrs. Young and Mrs. John Capinola may be contacted for tickets not already obtained through the mail.

Proposed Budget Set At $191,000
W. BLM. TWP.—Annual public meeting to discuss the 1956-57 budget will be held Monday at 1 p.m., according to Clerk Frank Hallett.

The proposed $191,000 1956-57 increase over last year's $176,000 budget, but does not include a settlement with newly-incorporated Kenzo Harter, estimated at $6,000, Hallett said.
