

Tenderness, most women agree, is the quality they value most highly in the masculine sex. A woman whose husband is tender toward her and their children is one who shines like a bright star in heaven. If it has regretful (most men will agree) that more males are not, in action, as tender as they may be in thought.

AT THE BIRMINGHAM MUSICALE Benefit Concert on Friday scholarships were presented to music students (from left) Susie Rippingille, flute; Gary Johnson, cornet; Dorothy Rodgers, violin; Arthur Plaxton, trombone; and Mary Ojala and Liz Leland, for their piano presentations. The students represent two local music clubs, the Junior Musicale and the Keynotes. On April 12th they will present the entire program for the sponsoring club, the Birmingham Musicale. Last Saturday at the Southeastern District of the Federated Music Clubs Junior Festival, both Mary Ojala and Dorothy Rodgers won superior ratings.

Women Voters League Publishes Voters' Guide

The Birmingham League of Women Voters has just published its Voters' Guide for the Birmingham Annual Election on April 2. Copies may be obtained today, Friday and Saturday at distribution centers set up at A & P, Wrigley and Kroger Super Markets, the Birmingham National and Wabeek banks and Krasge's. The commuter trains will be met on Friday night.

Before each election the League of Women Voters, a national non-partisan organization interviews candidates, asking them questions that are of pertinent interest to the voters, and compiles information on ballot issues. The main purpose of the organization is to get informed voters to the polls.

THE FOUR candidates running for the City Commission, were asked the following questions: "What would you, as a member of the Birmingham City Commission, like to see done in the following fields: City Planning, Roads, Recreational Facilities, Cooperation, in Regional Area Planning?"

Explanation of the three Proposals on the ballot were compiled by the Local Government Committee of the Birmingham League of Women Voters, chaired by Mrs. Evan Hannay.

The two candidates for the Board of Directors of the Baldwin Library, Mrs. Cassie L. Miller, and Birmingham School Supt. Dwight

Housewarming Party Surprises Residents

Mrs. and Mrs. Russell P. Olin of the Chestfield road were surprised Sunday afternoon when 20 couples from Birmingham, Detroit, Dearborn and Grosse Pointe gathered for a housewarming party.

The surprise, including a buffet supper was planned by Mrs. Milo Harvey, Mrs. A. S. Greiner and Mrs. N. W. Berry. Friends met at the Chestfield road home of the Berrys and went in a group.

The Olins are new residents of Birmingham, moving from Detroit in January.

Osage WNFG Meets Monday

Osage branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden association will meet Monday at 1 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Hugh T. Carney on Sussex, Birmingham.

Charles E. Mottox, authority on Japanese flower arrangements will make four floral displays, using pink cherry blossoms, pussy willows, forsythia, tulip, iris and other spring blooms.

PLANS for the May plant sale will be discussed. Serving on the hospitality committee are Mrs. Frederick Oliver, Mrs. George Robb and Mrs. Walter Seibel. Tea will follow the business meeting. Mrs. Michael Redfield and Mrs. Donald Richardson will pour.

Puppeteers Make Plans

Birmingham Puppeteers met at the home of Mrs. Calvin Dennison on Forest recently. Two original plays were chosen for production next fall.

These scripts were written by Puppeteers Mrs. Leonard A. Kurowski and Mrs. Walter G. Patton. Mrs. Patton's puppet play won honorable mention in the 1955 competition sponsored by the Detroit Art Institute and the Detroit News.

THIS has been a busy winter for the Puppeteers, with their current productions of "Pink Frosting," "Jack and the Beanstalk" and "The Wizard of Oz" making many appearances.

Tentative plans for the next meeting call for a program on either puppet construction or stage lighting and music. Meeting date has been set for Apr. 17. The time will be 8 p.m. and the place the Hamilton avenue home of Mrs. Robert Von Maur.

Fraternity Pledge At Albion College

David Sutton has pledged Delta Tau Delta fraternity at Albion college recently.

David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Sutton, Maryland avenue, Birmingham.

Craft and Hobby Classes to Exhibit at Community House

"We want the whole world to come and see us!" exclaimed Myra Showman, Community House staff member, of the annual craft and hobby exhibit to be held April 3 from 1 to 9 p.m. in the Community House.

Sculpture, silver jewelry, Easter hats, framed products of the design class in string and burlap and three-dimensional effects will be shown. According to Miss Showman, "You'll be astonished; they're simply wonderful!"

Once called "leisure time classes" are now billed as "craft and hobby classes" because, Miss Showman says, "People come now in style of their busy lives and not to fill vacant leisure." Friends of youngsters in the three children's painting classes are especially invited to view the exhibit Tuesday afternoon or evening.
