

Stars

The only when the night comes down, that stars come brightly shine. They are not seen in day's bright light, but in night's darkest clime.

Victory Dinner Celebrates YMCA Drive's Success

Birmingham branch of the Detroit YMCA concluded its annual membership campaign with a victory dinner at the downtown YMCA Monday evening. Birmingham branch's goal was 750 new and renewed members. They exceeded the goal, getting 867. Financial goal of $6000 was still $600 short at press time.

City-wide goal of all 14 YMCA branches was 10,300 new and renewed members, exceeded by attainment of 11,156. This brings the total membership of all Detroit YMCA branches to over 98,000, a new record. David Curry and his workers are particularly due recognition for the service they have rendered to area youth in this campaign. The Rev. Robert Graham and Arthur Blakelee were co-chairmen.

Sidewalk Contract

A $20,126.50 sidewalk construction contract was awarded this week to Suburban Cement Co. of Wyke, low bidder. It consists primarily of replacing walk along Edgewood, Cedar, Yosemite, Villa, east side of Woodward below Lincoln, and scattered patches over new household sewer and water services.

Want Street Paved

Petition for improvement of Elm street, from Hunter to Worth, has been referred to Birmingham City Manager D. C. Egbert for study. Petitioner is Chamberlain Real Estate Co., which is building a new office at that location.

Brooks Represents Local Toastmasters

Dwight Brooks, 1020 Hazel, Birmingham, was the local representative in the 28th District Toastmasters speech contest Tuesday night, at Waterford Community Center. He represented the local Birmingham Toastmasters club. George Motzenbecker served as alternate and Stuart Skelley, president of the local group served on the evaluating team.

Hermit Dies

Agullar, Col.—Arthur Minter Pritchard, 72-year-old bachelor hermit, who barricaded his home to visitors after the death of his parents in the early 1930's, was found dead apparently of natural causes, Tuesday. The little boy took his furniture, boxes, books and other articles were found in the house, plus more than $1,500 in cash hidden in boxes and tobacco sacks.

Young Cigar Smoker

Boston, Mass.—John J. Connelly, Juvenile Court judge, recently saw a little boy sitting in a doorway, puffing on a cigar. He casually asked, "Son, why aren't you in school?" The little boy took the cigar out of his mouth and replied, "Mister, I'm too young to go to school."

Dads Jailed

Lynchburg, Va.—When two boys, aged 11 and 12, were brought before Juvenile Court Judge O. R. Cundiff, charged with burglarizing a grocery store, the judge ordered an investigation. Their fathers said they didn't know the boys were out that night, so the judge gave the dads 60 days in jail for neglecting their boys.

Holiday Twins

Los Angeles, Cal.—On Thanksgiving Day, 1941, the stork presented Mr. and Mrs. Clebert Bergeron with twin boys, Clebert, Jr. and Gilbert, now 18. On Christmas Day, 1954, the stork came again with twin boys. The Bergerons have two other boys, Raymond, 11, and Anthony, 8.
