MRS. DONALD J. MUNRO

Philippine Wedding, Bangkok Honeymoon

Stopping over in Honolulu for several days, Ann Maples Patterson traveled to Manila with her parents, the George de la Roche Pattersons, Waddington road, Birmingham, for her marriage to Lt. (jg) Donald Jacques Munro at the US Naval station, Sangley Point, Luzon, in the Philippines. His parents are the Thomas Munros of Cleveland.

Ann's pure silk white taffeta bridal gown was trimmed with Alencon lace, beaded with pearls. Her rose pointe bedroom lace cap, belonging to her mother, held in place three-quarter length veil. She carried orchids and her only jewelry was her grandmother's diamond pendant.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Sherman Montell of Cavite City, Luzon, Republic of the Philippines. Her husband Lt. (jg) Sherman Montell, was best man.

MRS. PATTERSON chose a French blue lace ensemble with a matching hat and a corsage of orchids for her daughter's wedding. The reception followed at the officers club at Sangley Point.

The new Mrs. Munro donned a charcoal gray dress and jacket with red accessories to start her wedding trip to Bangkok, Thailand. After March 16 the couple will return to Cavite City to make their home. Ann's parents will go on to Bangkok, Thailand, and Hong Kong, Tokyo, before returning to Birmingham in April.

Parents Learn 'How We Play' At March Meeting

Adams school parents who are wondering what to do with Junior this summer will be interested in the evening of slides and movies provided by its PTA for the meeting Monday, March 12, at 8 p.m.

Donald Farry, program chairman, will be in charge of the meeting which will feature the year-round activities provided by the Birmingham Recreation Board. There will be emphasis on the YMCA, Community House, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

So far this year Adams PTA programs have dealt with family relationships with the school, with themselves, and with moral values

SARAH LEE HEINDEL

Parents Announce June Wedding

Announcement comes from Mr. and Mrs. John Harold Heindel, River Forest, Ill., of the engagement of their daughter, Sarah Lee, to John Rutherford Scott of Birmingham. John is the son of the Rutherford Clark Scotts of Kenosaw avenue.

Sarah is a graduate of Oak Park-River Forest high school and the University of Kansas, where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

John graduated from Oberlin college and took his master's in business administration at University of Michigan. After having served in the army, he is now taking sales training with a Chicago firm.

They plan to be married in June.

Local Coed Sings In Albion Program

When Albion college's choral society of 125 voices presents Johannes Brahms' "German Requiem" Sunday afternoon, Carolyn Coger will be singing in the alto section. The presentation will be in the First Methodist church, Albion, at four o'clock.

Professor David Strickler, head of the music department at Albion, will conduct this outstanding event of the Lenten season.
