Churchwomen View Car For Migrants at Event

Never underestimate the power of a group of Birmingham women working together to accomplish good fellowship and good works.

When over 400 women gathered Friday at the May Fellowship breakfast sponsored by United Church Women of Birmingham, they saw displayed at First Baptist church the new station wagon which had been purchased through their efforts. The car will be presented to the Michigan Migrant ministry for use in working with the 100,000 or more migratory workers who come to Michigan each year.

DELIVERY OF the Plymouth "Harvester", as it will be labeled, was received the day before by Mrs. Harry Cook, of First Presbyterian church, chairman of the migrant committee. The car's arrival came only a month after the United Church Women launched their drive to obtain necessary funds.

Mrs. Cook announced the drive's success at Friday's fellowship breakfast, just before Dr. and Mrs. Robert Young and a group of their Highland Park church's members began a panel discussion on "Who Forms Your Opinions?" Dr. Young and his panel of young Christian leaders, Walter Ormsby, Eunice Stukan and Ron Balsden, discussed with their interested audience the pressures brought to bear on modern-day thinking.

"BUT IF WE listen to God," Dr. Young said, "our opinions are no longer opinions—but certainty." Preceding the discussion, breakfast was served in the church banquet hall from a long white-covered buffet table decorated with pink carnations. Women of First Baptist church who served the breakfast were uniformly trim in dark skirts and white blouses. Mrs. Fraser Pomeroy and Mrs. George Burnham were co-chairmen of the event.

AMONG THE fellowship participants who attended were Mrs. Karl Bronson, of First Methodist church; Mrs. G. A. R. Slocum, St. James; Mrs. John Vander Roest, Christ church; Mrs. Ernest D. Nathan, Kirk in the Hills; Mrs. Vernon Fisher, Franklin Community; Mrs. Glenn M. Nagle, Southfield Methodist; and Mrs. Thomas H. Meyers, Community church, all members of the fellowship day committee.

Other committee members were Mrs. Albert Eckhold, Congregational; Mrs. Cecil King, First Baptist; Mrs. Robert Hoffman, Northminster Presbyterian; and Mrs. Ruth Norton, Embury Methodist.

Representatives of all the 12 Birmingham area Protestant churches making up the United Church Women gathered for the affair. Among them were Mrs. Norman J. Ellis, of Kirk in the Hills; and Mrs. Richard Fowler, of St. James.

AMONG THE ministers' wives were Mrs. MacKay Taylor, of Northminster Presbyterian; Mrs. Robert D. Dewey, of Birmingham Congregational; Mrs. Emil Kottz, of First Baptist; Mrs. John D. Rose, of Community Congregational; and Mrs. Harry Martin, of First Methodist.

Present Day Club Will Meet Tuesday

The Present Day club will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Harry Clark, East 14 Mile road, Birmingham. The hostess has planned a musical program.

At the group's annual meeting this month officers were elected. Mrs. D. J. Bleakley is the new president. Vice-president is Mrs. J. E. Fryer; reorganizing secretary, Mrs. Melvin Uppleger; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Floyd Crouse; and treasurer, Mrs. J. J. Blains.
