Betrothal Announced

At a cocktail party Saturday afternoon in their Hawthorne road, Birmingham home, Mr. and Mrs. William Wright Williams announced the engagement and planned August wedding of their daughter, Anne Loring, to Gilbert A. Bogley of Birmingham. Gil is the son of Mrs. F. L. Houck of Warren, Ohio, and the late Roland A. Bogley, Washington, D. C. He is a graduate of Princeton university, Princeton, N. J., where he was a member of Cannon club. As a lieutenant with the U.S. Army he served in Korea and Japan. Anne attended Kingswood school, Cranbrook, and is a graduate of St. Mary's-in-the-Mountains, Litchton, N. H. She spent a year at the University of Paris and graduated from Cornell university, Ithaca, N. Y.

Will-O-Way Season to Open June 5

Will-O-Way Playhouse this week announced that its 17th season, for a while an uncertainty, will definitely open on June 5, with the help of a new "package" ticket project. The announcement was made by William W. Merrill, director, at a tea Sunday at the new Will-O-Way Apprentice theater located behind the Merrill residence on Long Lake road. Hostess for the tea was Mr. Merrill's sister, Mrs. Celia Merrill Turner, who is heading the "package" project. Friends of Will-O-Way who gathered from all over the Detroit metropolitan area learned of the launching of a May campaign to sell packages of six tickets for the price of five. TICKETS IN THE packages may be used for any show on any night during the seven-show season, and their sale is being handled by a "barker's dozen" of women representing various areas. Birmingham area residents included in the "barker's dozen" are Mrs. Syver K. Thingstad, of Willansbury; Mrs. Robert Vander-Kloot, of Lone Pine; Mrs. Sidney F. McKenna, of Thorncrest; Mrs. Earl Weston, of Forman; and Mrs. Marjorie B. Edwards of Colonial court. Others are Mrs. Allan Beauchamp of Berrington road and Miss Frances Rudd of Chester. THROUGH THE advance sale of the packages, Merrill said enough of a cushion should be obtained to keep Will-O-Way going, despite losses suffered during a severe heat wave last summer. He said attempts were being made to secure such comedies as "The Solid Gold Cadillac," "The Seven-Year Itch" and "Anniversary Waltz" for the air-conditioned playhouse's coming season. Among friends of Will-O-Way attending the tea were Mrs. Walter F. Skinner, Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond, Mrs. H. H. Gardener and Mrs. Lawrence Heintz. Mrs. Treasa Way Merrill and Mrs. Lillian Hicks of Grosse Pointe poured.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
