Mouse Trips Alarm
 Omaha, Neb.—When a burglar alarm rang in a municipal court room at the police station, the cops started an investigation. They came to the conclusion that no one was trying to break in but that a mouse had tripped the alarm.

Moment Musicale Members Present Spring Concert

One of the six junior music clubs in Birmingham, Moment Musicale, sponsored by the Birmingham Musicale, presented its spring concert May 2 at the Community House. On the program were piano selections by Fritz Harris, Carol King, Melodie Brown, Sonie Jane Frank, Julie Fitzgerald, Judy Lucas, Ann Bailey, Carol Anne Warner, Juanita Christie, Ann Schroter, Judy Snelham, Jane Griffith, Judy Mork, Sheila Stephenson and Bruce Geyman.

PHILIP SATTERTHWAITTE and Edson Stevens performed on the cornet. Clarinet numbers featured Michael Emery, Marjorie Stettbacher, Charles Fierz and David Somanen. Barbara Bailey and Judy Burns gave a flute duet. Those who chose the violin for their performances were Margaret McLeon, Joan Haymann, Francella Green, Gloria Hite, Sharon Spencer and Jackie Meredith. John Kiefer played the tuba.

Providing accompaniment for the program were Mrs. Robert Kirtcher, Mrs. Robert Elder and Mrs. Arnold W. Berndt. Mrs. Richard D. Manige is the group's counselor.

MOMENT MUSICALE members are junior high students who take part in school activities such as orchestra, band and glee club and sing in church choirs.

The club will have a meeting Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the home of Gloria Hite, Waddington road, Bloomfield Village. Students scheduled to become members in the fall, will be guests. Officers are to be elected and plans made for next year's program.

Young Republican Group Is Active In Election Year

Mrs. Betty Ellis, 2901 W. Lincoln, recently elected a delegate to the Republican party's state convention, issued chairman of the 18th congressional district Young Republican club.

She was elected a delegate at the recent Oakland county Republican party convention.

When notified of her election, Mrs. Ellis expressed hope that more young Republican men and women will actively participate in party affairs during election year.

RESIDENTS OF the 18th congressional district who are under 36 and interested in working to elect Republican party nominees to office, are welcome to the club, she said.

Richard Ellis, her husband, is a member of the executive board of the 18th congressional Young Re-

★ Smile A Minute

Sweeping back his long black hair with an impressive gesture, an actor faced a director in a movie studio. "I have come, sir," he announced in a deep voice, "because I want a job in your latest picture."

"Have you had any experience acting without an audience?" asked the director. A flicker of sadness appeared for a moment in the expressive eyes of the actor. "Acting without audience," he replied, "is what brought me here."
