Area Youngsters Win Little League Bowling Tournament

Greg Cowman and Jim Hatmaker of Lanegan drive took top honors in the doubles tournament of the Birmingham Little League Bowlers. Their winning score was 517. Each was awarded a trophy and a neckerchief.

Seven little friends gathered at the home of Bruce Butzier of Glynedebourne Saturday, to help him celebrate his fifth birthday. Ice cream and birthday cake was enjoyed by all before a trek to the theatre. Those attending were Mary Taylor, Jay Hoey, Steve May, Doug Norman, Bruce and Ronny Olson, Debby Butzier. Patty Norman assisted Mrs. Butzier at the party.

The William Reichards of Bolingbroke are home again after a week of sight seeing in New York. They enjoyed the atmosphere of the little "out of the way" restaurants, the shops along Fifth Avenue, and the performances of jazz artists. They found time, also, to take in "The Lark," "Fanny" and "Lamm Yankee."

The little Reichards, Tommy and Nancy, had fun at home with Grandma Reichard.

Mrs. Keith Jenkins of Glynedebourne road entertained at a coffee on the morning of May 2. Those attending were Mrs. Marvin Olson, Mrs. Charles Ramsdell, Mrs. Bruce Butzier, Mrs. Howard Norman, Mrs. Robert Mead, Mrs. Eugene Reilly, Mrs. Earl May, Mrs.
