Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Petix Home from Two-Week Cruise

Home from a two week cruise to South America are Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Petix of Bellvine trail. They and a party of friends boarded the Santa Paula in New York City.

To encourage relaxation, informality was the keynote on shipboard. Buffet luncheon was served at the ship's swimming pool. Stops at ports were regulated by amount of cargo to be unloaded. This could take from one to forty-eight hours.

In what is known as shopper's paradise, Curacao, Dutch West Indies, they stayed more than 24 hours. Merchise from all over the world, duty free, awaits the traveler.

In Caracas, Venezuela, the party did some sight-seeing. Those interested to see that mahogany grows abundantly in South America. Attractive use of mahogany was noted in the officers club in Caracas. Folding screens made of individual squares of solid mahogany, with orchids growing out of the center of each square, were used to separate rooms.

According to Dr. and Mrs. Petrix, Caracas is a city beyond description.

In Cartagena, Colombia they were awakened by children shouting the one English word they know: "money." Children, 9 and 10, float out on bamboo logs to meet each ship and dive for coins thrown overboard.

Here, there is one car for every two people but it is a quiet place. Cars are equipped with bicycle horns but there is a $100 fine for blowing them. Between noon and two o'clock, everything stops for siesta time.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Hall of Smallwood drive went to their summer place on Drummond Isle for the week-end. Besides getting things ready for summer, the Doctor and Mrs. Hall were able to get in some smelt fishing.

A Topsy-Turvy dance was in swing at the Harris home on Westlady road Friday evening. Janice had 18 of her friends in to initiate the new recreation room. Ice buckets of cokes and baskets of potato chips were enjoyed and before the trek homeward, Mrs. Harris served ice cream and cake.

Mr. and Mrs. John Buckley, formerly of Bellvine trail, now of California, announce the birth of a grandson Glen David Insana. Born April 22 at St. Johns hospital, Glen weighed 7 lbs. 11 oz. Mrs. Buckley's daughter Patricia Mrs. Frank Insana and family are staying at the Buckley home.

Last Thursday at their regular meeting, brownie troop 673 entertained eight young ladies from the Baptist children's home. The Brownies presented the guests with a completely furnished doll house. Furniture, curtains, bed spreads and rugs were all handmade by troop members. There was even a tiny nurse-doll tending the nursery. Among the guests was a set of triplets which intrigued the brownies no end. The girls played games and ended a pleasant afternoon with cupcakes and soft drinks.

Al and Bernie Hartman of Eastlady road have returned from a nine-day motor trip through North Carolina and Kentucky. The Hartmans spent two days golfing and visiting Charles Morrison of North Carolina.

After touring the Smokies they arrived at Lexington, Ky. where they stayed at the Campbell House. Meeting with old friends and taking in the races at Keeneland makes a fine combination for a pleasant vacation they report.

Mrs. Hartman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Mensik of Cleveland, Ohio, stayed with the Hartman children while they were away.

Home to rest after a whirlwind weekend are the Wilson McClellans of Mile road and Dr. and Mrs. Russell Seeburger of Bellvine Trail. The foursome drove to Glen Lake near Traverse City Friday. Saturday included boating, fishing, scenic driving, attending a white elephant sale at a small church and visiting all the gift shops at the resort. On returning to their cottage, Doctor Seeburger and Mr. McClellan charcoaled steaks for dinner. Not wanting to call it a day yet, a Polka dance attracted them for the evening.

Closing the bowling season with the Newcomers bowling league at the annual banquet were Mrs. Bert Gatward, Mrs. Bruce Cornell, Mrs. Mark Schoenith and Mrs. Vince Provenzano, all of Bellville Trail; Mrs. Michael Galla of Topper Court; Mrs. Spencer LeeKing of Smallwood drive and Mrs. Lawrence Beck of Eastlady road.

After the banquet a business meeting and election of officers was held. Mrs. Bruce Cornell was elected vice-president. Prize money was awarded.

Christine, daughter of the Anthony Foleys of Vernon drive, will celebrate her 10th birthday Saturday. Joining the family at dinner will be Candy Quail of Vernon drive, and classmates from Holy Name, Kathleen Longeway of Kennoway circle and Patsy Kelley of Lincoln road. The girls will play games before dinner and later enjoy ice cream and the birthday cake.

Bowling League Ends Season With Luncheon

FRANKLIN — A luncheon at Orchard Lake country club today will end the season for the Thursday bowling league. High team trophy will be presented to Vega Clayton, Ginny Swift, June Chick and Lydia Hyde, members of the Grace real estate team which won a total of 79½ games.

Close behind them with 78 victories were Jean Small, Buelah Stout, Fonita Paris and Emma Coburn, members of the team sponsored by the Hugh White agency.

Trophies and prizes will also be awarded to individual high scorers Florence Searls with 216, Wilma Hansen, 212; and Jean Currin with 210 points.

Mrs. Thomas A. Stacey Holds Coffee for Nephrosis Drive

May 1st being Child Health Day, it was timely that Mrs. Thomas A. Stacey entertained at morning coffee in the interest of childhood nephrosis.

Mrs. Robert Kirkpatrick, Wing Lake physician, spoke and gave a talk on this disease. She pointed out that until recently, nephrosis was 100-per cent fatal but now stands at 50 per cent. Greater advances in the study of this disease are under way and support of the national nephrosis fund is strenuously being sought throughout the nation.

Wing Lake Farms neighbors present were Mrs. Albert Carr, Mrs. Joseph Juett, Mrs. Gerald Seibert, Mrs. Earl Stuckey and Mrs. Walter Wengren. From Birmingham were Mrs. Earl Brambilett and Mrs. Ken Tregenza and from Wing Lake, Mrs. Jack Roberts, Wing Lake area chairman.

Mrs. Seibert was appointed chairman of clubs and organizations and Mrs. Stacey chairman of special events.

Mrs. Stacey's floral centerpiece was pink sweet-peas with the table service in pink California pottery.

First meeting of the Wing Lake school fair chairmen was held May 3 at the home of Barbara Davies, co-chairman of the fair. Reports from committee chairmen indicate this year's fair promises to be a rollicking event. The fair will be held on Wing Lake school grounds May 19.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Rassmussen, Cherokee lane, have entertained for the past three weeks, his brother, Adolph Rassmussen of Copenhagen, Denmark and the latter to America in November and visited in the south during the winter months.

The Rassmussens entertained at cocktails and dinner for him at Fox and Hounds recently. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vandekloot, Bloomfield township; Mr. and Mrs. John Stevenson, Bloomfield Village, Mr. and Mrs. Semon Knudsen, Bingham road, Rassmussen's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Davis, Maple road, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grann of Oakhill drive, and Mrs. Louise Rassmussen and her daughter and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Darrell Campbell of Ann Arbor.

Foxcroft Woman's National Farm and Garden is planning a dessert bridge June 6 at the home of Mrs. Robert A. Thom.

The party is a benefit for the club's education fund and the committee hopes for a good turn-out of members and guests.

For tickets, phone early the following co-chairmen: Mrs. F. E. Fleming, Mrs. J. W. Wolfston, Mrs. Frank Cavan, Mrs. G. W. Muehl, Mrs. G. S. Whittaker or Mrs. E. E. Kramer.

Among 52 athletes receiving awards at the parents and sons athletic banquet held at Bloomfield Hills high school May 3 were several from this area. They were Ed and Doug Danziger, Bob Thompson, Chuck Stuckey, Dave Chesquiere, Jim Sickles, Jim Dietz, Bob Kaarmeyer, Doug Jocelyn and Harlan Davis.

Edmund Danziger was master of ceremonies and Ed Danziger, Jr., student government president, gave the invocation. Short talks were given by Eugene Johnson, superintendent of schools, and Richard Spies, principal of the high school.

Fathers' committee responsible for the first banquet to be held in the new school were Dean Davis, Harvey Franian, William Barrett, Asa Drury and Edward Marrow.

AREA NEWCOMERS

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton G. Thornburgh and three children, Carlton Guy III, John Bryant and Barbara, have moved from their Faircroft home to their newly-purchased home on Oak Grove drive.

Foxcroft welcomes four families who have moved in recently. Mr. and Mrs. C. Peter Blume and small daughters, Karen, 2, and Julie, 3 months, formerly of Birmingham. They moved to their new home on West Surrey in Maple Wood. Mr. Blom is with Chicago-Rawhide.

Another family from Birmingham is Mr. and Mrs. Osburn A. Campbell, now in their home on Orchard way. Campbell is subscription representative for Grove, Sumner Englebert insurance agency, Detroit. Mrs. Campbell is a former member of the Birmingham WNFG.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Knox moved from Huntington Woods to Sandy lane two weeks ago. Living with them are their grandsons, Skipp Hopkins, 8, and Mrs. Knox's mother, Mrs. M. Grigware. Knox is with Lamina Die and Tool Co. The family attends the Lutheran church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Perkins and son, Jeff, formerly of Pontiac, are now occupying their new home on Orchard way. Few people are ever as lucky as the Perkins in choosing a home. They knew what they wanted, this was the first house they looked at and they bought it. They are delighted.

Appeals Bd. Rules Out Church Location

SOUTHFIELD — Board of Appeals denied a request by Detroit Ecclesia Bible Students Association for a church site at 13 Mile road between Southfield and Evergreen roads, last week.

Board members did not consider the site to be a proper location for a church, according to Township Supervisor Eugene Swem.

Kiwaniqueens Hear Exchange Teacher At Meeting Tonight

SOUTHFIELD — Kiwaniqueens will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. John E. Hipple, on Glen drive, with Mrs. Thomas H. Myers, Mrs. James A. Burrows, Jr., and Mrs. John W. Grimes, assisting hostesses.

Speaker for the evening, arranged by Mrs. Franklin W. Harger, will be an exchange teacher from England, who will give her views of living and teaching away from her homeland.

Kiwaniqueens entertained their husbands at a spaghetti dinner April 21, with Mrs. Albert Geeraert chairman of the affair. On May 12, a group of the activities committee will sponsor a card party at the home of Mrs. A. F. Boudreau, chairman, of Everett avenue, Berkley.

Kiwaniqueens will send two Southfield township girls, who otherwise would be unable to have a vacation to Camp Oakland for two weeks.

Upper Teens Club Outing Is May 19

SOUTHFIELD — Southfield's own Bob and Ray will be a part of the May 19 program when Boys Upper Teens Club of Southfield hold their outing at Southfield Park, according to Jim Blackford, publicity chairman.

All Southfield young men between 15 and 19 are invited to the "stag or drag" affair. Tickets can be obtained from any club member or from Program Chairman Bruce Osgood, whose phone is ELgin 6-1595.

According to Blackford the outdoor activities include baseball, horse shoes, croquet, and badminton.

Dinner will be served as part of the club's first major social affair which begins at 4 p.m. and runs until midnight.

Franklin WNFG Members Make Flower Arrangements for Banquet

Representing Franklin at the Woman's National Farm and Garden association banquet last night at the Birmingham Community House was Mrs. Harry Barr, president of the Franklin branch. Four of the table arrangements were made by Franklin members Mrs. Donald Button, Mrs. Carlton Rasmussen and Mrs. George Loweke.

Today Mrs. Robert Rowse will attend the "bloomtime" luncheon at Devon Gables. Advance reservations for the lectures and study groups have been made by Mrs. Donald Button and Mrs. Louis Leach although more Franklin members are expected to take advantage of the meetings.

Next Monday, May 14, the annual meeting and election of officers of the WNFG will be held in Franklin church. Everyone is urged to bring a plant for the plant exchange. Dessert will be served at 12:30.

Mrs. Richard Kern and children, Carrie, Rickey and Jeff, have returned to their home on Franklin Hills drive after a month at Pompano Beach, Fla.

The Franklin Community Association spring dance will be held tomorrow night, May 11, at the Birmingham country club. Earl Perkins and his orchestra will supply the music. Len Madge, association president, says the advance ticket sale has been good and a large crowd is expected.

ANNUAL ROUND-UP

The annual kindergarten roundup will be held at the school next Wednesday, May 16, at 1:00 p.m. All children who will be entering kindergarten in the fall are invited to come with their mothers and get acquainted with teachers, Edwin Crandell, principal and Mrs. Francis Curtin, school nurse. Refreshments will be served to the children by Mrs. Newton Cole and Mrs. John Lackner.

A children's clothing exchange will be held at the next meeting of the Evening Circle, Thursday, May 17, at 8:15 p.m. Mrs. Collman Porter, 29970 Southfield Lane, Farmington, will be hostess, assisted by Mrs. Nick Rosiello, Mrs. George Loweke and Mrs. John Dunsmoor. Elections and annual reports are also on the agenda.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Nathan have returned to their home on Old Franklin after a ten day visit with former friends and neighbors on Long Island. Their daughter and son-in-law, Lieutenant and Mrs. Norman Innes, visited the seven week old baby, are driving to Anchorage, Alaska, where they will be stationed for the next three years.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Bevans of Wellington road will soon be moving to Concord, Mass.

The Tuesday night mixed bowling league recently concluded its season with a banquet at Bloomfield Inn. First place trophies were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Foley, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roberts, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Collins.

Officers for next season were elected and are president, Jim McGuire; vice president, Claude Cook, secretary, Nell Price; and treasurer, Marion Baker. Interested couples may join the league by calling Mrs. Philip Van Dyke, 31315 Franklin road.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Adams of Willow Green are entertaining with cocktails before the Franklin Community Association dance tomorrow night.

The Palmer House in Chicago was headquarters last weekend for six Franklin couples. Making the rounds of the stores, shows and night spots were Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Garwood, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Len Madge, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roberts and Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Jones.

Girl scouts will hold a bake sale at Franklin Community hall Saturday, May 26, to earn money for camping equipment which may be shared by all neighborhood troops.

Last weekend the John Lackners boarded the special train which took them down to see the Kentucky Derby. They have invited a few neighbors in for cocktails before the Franklin Community Association dance.

Visiting the Frank Noders on a three months pleasure trip is their nephew, Manfred Zoller of London, England.

The Bob Hamptons have returned from a vacation at Sea Island, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cook of Franklin Hills drive had both their son and daughter home last weekend. Ty is a junior at Kiski school in Saltsburg, Pa., and Jane is a senior at Dennison. Jane is busy getting ready for her graduation and her August wedding.

Mrs. Dudley Campbell of Bingham Lane will host the Franklin unit meeting of the LWV Tuesday, May 15, at 7:00 p.m. Children's care is the subject under discussion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Thompson of Overwood have invited a few friends over before the Franklin Community Association dance to meet Barbara and Steve Tompkins who have moved into a new house on Pickering road. Mr. Tompkins works for Chrysler, and Mrs. Tompkins was a substitute teacher when they lived in Huntington Woods. Daughter Polly is 11, and Peter and Philip are 14 year-old twins. They are all enthusiastic campers and enjoy camping together at Higgins lake in the summer.

Newcomers to the village are Arthur and Marian Marshall who have moved into the Ritner house on Wellington. Mr. Marshall owns Kay Bar Inc., a plastic coating company in Birmingham. The children are finishing the year in their former school in Huntington Woods, but Peggy, 11, and Linda, 9, are looking forward to enrolling in Franklin school next year. By then, Larry 5, will be ready for kindergarten. Tommy, the 2 year old, will be "at home."

Gardening and bird study are particularly interesting to Mrs. Marshall, a former girl scout leader. She also made a large felt map of Michigan. Important cities and areas were designated, not by name, but by small felt cut-outs, depicting the local industry or natural resources.

It has been sent on to New York city for judging, along with three other projects from the area. One will be selected to be hung in the Juliette Low home, now being restored in Savannah.

Tom Tracy celebrated his 13th birthday Saturday. It was number 9 for Judy Rosiello.

Lathrup Sixth Graders Hold Last Square Dance of Season

Lathrup school gym will echo to the last do-si-do of the season tonight when the sixth grade holds its final party of the year. With vacation plans uppermost in mind, the committee has chosen a Western theme, and decorated the gym accordingly. Ginger ale floats will highlight the refreshments.

Mr. F. X. Brandeheau will serve as caller for the figures. Student committee includes Kathy Kromemeyer, Sandy Boltwood, George Knighton and Jim Bartell. Adult sponsors are: Dr. and Mrs. Mario Ciofari, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Goodie, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Quinn and Mr. and Mrs. George Knighton.

The Chapel in the Garden at Angola, Indiana is the setting for the April 23 marriage of two young Lathrup residents. Jacqueline Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Simmons and Donald Alderman, son of the Dale Aldermans, were united in marriage by the Rev. William J. VanVleet. The young people have returned to their studies at Houghton Tech., Houghton, Mich.

Three Lathrup lovelies will take part in the operetta, Babes In Toyland, which Our Lady of Mercy High School will present in McAuly auditorium Friday, May 11, and the following Saturday and Sunday. Carol Flemming, the Fairy Queen, will be featured in a solo dance. Demeiges Marquis is a piper child and Joan Anderson a dandy and understudy to the role of Tom.

Mary Beth Moran of Chicago was the well-feted guest last week of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cummins of Rainbow Circle. Mrs. B. M. Shorts was hostess of a luncheon in her honor in the DAC. Mr. and Mrs. John Riley hosted a cocktail party, and the Carl Bushes of Rackham entertained at dinner at the Berkley club.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Lathrup Woman's club chose officers for the coming year at a meeting last Monday in the Houseon-the-Woods: Mrs. Elmer S. Craig, president, Mrs. James Wichert, vice-president, Mrs. Alex Bilenko, secretary, Mrs. Alfona Meyer, recording secretary, and Mrs. Fredrick A. Byington, corresponding secretary.

Tea in a spring setting was poured by past-president, Mrs. William Reinhard and Mrs. Craig. A provocative talk on family living by Mary Morgan, CKLW-TV star sent members scurrying to the adjoining village offices for woodshed building permits following her advocation of a return to old-fashioned methods.

The arrival of Cathy Jean Nikoden at Women's hospital April 24 holds special interest for many Lathrup residents. Her parents are the Joseph Nikodens, Jr., of Livonia, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nikoden, were residents of Lathrup for 16 years before moving to Northville last Thanksgiving. The young lady arrived in plenty of time to attend the June graduation of her aunt, Shirley Nikoden from Northville high school.

Lathrup Supper Dance club will meet this Saturday at Lathrup school. Mr. and Mrs. Angus O'Brien are in charge of arrangements and Carol Flemming will entertain with dances.

Thirty Lathrup couples have signed up for the big mixed doubles bowling tournament to be held tomorrow evening at Ritz Recreation at 9 p.m.

This is Lathrup's second annual tournament, even though you don't bowl, or haven't signed up for the bowling, it is fun to watch and cheer neighbors on to high scores.

Guests will be Maureen Crowley, Kathleen Kelly, Bonnie Ferstle, Mary Seibert, Kathleen Quinlan, Pat Hartner, Kit Sifferman, Margaret Fransz, Margaret Young, Martha Berry, Judy Butka, Charlotte Bosworth, Arlene Nick and Christine DeRosier.

Last Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Trowbridge thought they were going to spend a quiet evening, visiting the Bill Monahans on Marguerite—perhaps, playing cards. But the evening wasn't so quiet. It turned out to be a surprise party as a farewell to the Trowbridges, who are moving soon. Neighbors who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Melville Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Woods, the John Staigers, the Milton Youngs, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kidney, and the Arthur Andersons.

Newcomers to Auburn drive are Mr. and Mrs. Santo Pernicano and their four children, who moved here from Ferndale in January. Their 19 year old son Vincent, is an aviation engineering student at U of D and is in the air corps reserve. Frank is 17 and will graduate from St. James High School in June. A sport enthusiast, football is his main interest. Mary Ann 13, is also at St. James. Nancy, who is four, stays home with mamma.

Pernicano owns and operates Sam's Quality market on Livernois in Ferndale.

Mr and Mrs Russell Martin of Verona Circle with the Wilfred Kanes of Wyandotte spent a three weeks' vacation in the Petersburg, Fla. at Boca Ciega Bay.

On their return trip, they stopped in Memphis to visit the Martins' daughter, Margaret, her husband and two children. David is 3 and Kathy, 6 months. Once home they immediately set off for Garden City to visit newest grandchild, Carol Ann, who arrived April 18 at the Russel W. Martin home.

Brownie troops 358 and 721 are visiting Cranbrook planetarium today. Their leaders, Mrs. Walter Miller, Mrs. James Moore, Mrs. Jo Carriere and Mrs. William Monahan are taking the girls Mrs. Howard Lamble will also drive.

Girls of brownie troop 617 will work on their fly-up today. Their leader, Mrs. John Johnson, will help half of the girls prepare sloppy-joes and baked potatoes at her Arlington Drive home.

Another group will make dessert at the home of Mrs. Charles Rondeau, on Southlawn. When finished group two will go to the Johnson home where everyone will eat.
