"A Braw Fun Day" Scheduled May 18 At Oakland Hills

By BARBARA GANSCHOW

Oakland Hills country club lassies will don old fashioned, and Scottish attire and accessories for their "Fun Day at Old St. Andrews" May 18 at the club.

The day's events will get under way at 8:30 a.m. and will feature a "one club tourney" in which members can choose any wood, but must stick to it for the entire tourney. Non-golfers will try their luck in a putting and driving contest.

Gathering around the punch bowl at 12:30 p.m., the girls will be wearing name tags in the shape of Scotty dogs. A buffet is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. followed by more festivities.

Mrs. John Gray, Pilgrim avenue, Birmingham, is chairman for the event. Assisting her are Mrs. Lester Beltz, Meadowbrook way, Lathrup Village, Mrs. William Cartwright of Overhill road, Bloomfield village, Mrs. John Howling, Harmon avenue, Birmingham, Mrs. John Hopcock of Pine Hill, Troy township, Mrs. Francis Sehn of Detroit and Mrs. Russell Derr, Safford road, Birmingham.

Invitations to old and new members say it's to be "a braw fun day...dinna forget" to attend.

Anniversary Party

Celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary, the Myron E. Snyder of Kenwood court, Birmingham, entertained 30 guests Saturday evening at the D.M.C. Meadowbrook way. Mrs. Snyder resided in the club's Pontchartrain room. She pinned a white orchid corsage to her white chiffon ballerina-length gown.

Dinner and dancing to music provided by Phil Skillman's orchestra was enjoyed in the main dining room decorated

WNFG Tea Today

Mrs. Robert H. Skillman, Fairfield Farms, Bloomfield Hills, had hoped to have the weatherman cooperate so that her garden would be bloom today, but instead has had to plan for geraniums and peonies to be set out to give a touch of color to the scene.

The Woman's National Farm and Garden club winds up its two day state meeting with a 3:30 p.m. tea at the Skillman home.

Wedding Whirl

Elaine Darden of Lake Orion is in a whirl of pre-nuptial festivities that will continue right up to the last minute June 23 when she'll walk down the aisle of St. Hugo of the Hills church, Bloomfield Hills, to become the bride of Lawrence Heitsch of Pontiac.

On the agenda are showers, luncheons, cocktail parties and dinners. Mrs. John Wood of Bloomfield Hills and her daughter, Mrs. George Trumbull, Jr., Madison avenue, Birmingham, entertained the bride-elect at a luncheon and mingling, entertained the bride-elect at a luncheon and mingling, entertained the bride-elect at a luncheon and mingling, entertained the bride-elect at a luncheon and mingling.

Mrs. Bernard Goode will hostess an electrical appliance shower and tea this Saturday in her Bloomfield Hills home.

The wedding is scheduled for 11 a.m. with a garden reception at "Dardennes," home of Elaine's parents, the Frederick Dardens.

Children to See Puppet Display

When the children's theater of the American Auxiliary of University Women meets Wednesday in Detroit Art Institute's study room, Arthur Cavallo, of the Institute, will present the McFarland puppet display, currently on exhibit there.

Ex-residents of Birmingham, the McFarlands have widely displayed their famous puppets.

The children will also be taken on an informal tour of the museum.

MOMS' Tag Day Date Is Changed

MOMS of America, Inc., postponed their tag day because of unfavorable weather. They will sell tags here tomorrow.

Their regular business meeting Monday will start with a 6:30 pot-luck supper, to which husbands are invited. Mrs. John Waltrath, Mt. Vernon avenue, Birmingham, will be hostess.

Members who joined since September, 1955, will be honored. Travel color slides will be shown by Mr. Waltrath.

Mr. and Mrs. Ziegelbauer On Eastern Wedding Trip

Betty Ann Mason of Detroit and George Robert Ziegelbauer, pledged their troth Saturday before Canon C. W. Hughes at St. Alban Episcopal church, Highland Park. One hundred and fifty guests witnessed the double-ring candlelight ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Mason of Franklin, her husband's parents are the Paul J. Ziegelbauers of Franklin road, Franklin.

Betty carried a prayer book adorned with white gladioli and stephanotis.

Mrs. Jane Kawecki of Boston, Mass., served as matron of honor. She wore a rose coral crystallite dress. Streamers fell to the floor from a bow fastened at the back of the cowl neckline. Forget-me-nots dotted her circular veil and her bouquet was made up of garnet gladioli.

BEST MAN was Joseph Colombatto of Detroit, John Ziegelbauer of Lyons, S. Y., bridegroom's brother, shared guests along with cousins of the groom, Richard H. Zimmerman and Charles S. Hutchins of Pontiac.

Mrs. Ziegelbauer was gownned in light blue self-embroidered silk organza for her son's wedding. Her hat was of matching material with a navy blue brim and her flowers were pink roses.

The newweds left a reception in the church parlors for a motor trip through the eastern states. They will reside in Detroit.

Oakland PTA Honors Officers

Several local persons attended the Southern Oakland county PTA council's luncheon honoring officers Monday at Northland center.

Southfield school superintendent, Glenn Schoenhaus, and Troy superintendent, Stuart K. Baker, were there. Mrs. Raymond Southfield, and Mrs. Robert Sanford, Troy, council members, also attended.

School superintendents were co-hosts with the Northland center chamber of commerce.

Principle speaker was Dr. George L. Hinds, director of adult programs in speech and manager of the executive development program, department of political science, Wayne university.

HIS THEME was the PTA's part in education through development.

The officers honored are to appear on Northland center's TV program over Channel 4 Saturday, noon to 2 p.m. They and their husbands will also be guests of the center's chamber of commerce at dinner and the theater, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Roberts Talks To Child Study Club

Mrs. Betty Roberts spoke on "Courage for the Future" before the Birmingham Child Study Club Monday evening.

The group met in the Adams road home of Mrs. A. Edgar Ebersole for its annual covered dish dinner.

Mrs. Roberts told of her experiences while traveling in the Yukon territory. The theme of her presentation derived from the courage she found manifested in the lives of an elderly girl living in the area.

Mrs. Edward Hewitt, Eastlake drive, Beverly Hills, took off at the meeting. Other officers are program chairman, Mrs. Noah Peterson, Madison avenue; secretary, Mrs. Malcolm Cameron of Riverknob avenue; and treasurer, Mrs. M. Stuart, Madison avenue, all of Birmingham.

Baskets of flowers were presented to the out-going officers. Committee chairman each received a yellow rose.

Son Takes Honors Friday at U of M

Mr. and Mrs. Webster Scheifele, Linden road, Birmingham, are traveling to Ann Arbor for tomorrow's honor convocation at the University of Michigan.

Their son, Stuart, a senior, is one of the honor students.

While there, the parents will be guests at tea in the home of President and Mrs. Hatcher.

This makes the second trip to Ann Arbor in a couple of weeks for Mrs. Scheifele. She was recently a guest at the mothers' week end—which coincides with the May festival—at Chi Psi lodge, of which Stuart is vice president.

Mathews Takes Cargo Boat Trip

Fenton R. Mathews of North Adams road, Birmingham, has returned from a seven weeks tour covering over 10,000 miles.

He boarded a 12 passenger cargo boat, at Halifax, Nova Scotia which traveled down the east coast to Bermuda, St. Kitts, Antigua, Montserrat, St. Lucia, Barbados, St. Vincent, Grenada and Trinidad of the West Indies.

The boat also stopped at ports in South America. After the return trip, Mr. Mathews embarked at St. John New Brunswick, Canada.

Fashion Show Aids Nurse's Scholarship

The annual Benefit Bridge luncheon of the Oakland County Osteopathic Auxiliary was held last Tuesday at the Post Office Federal Savings and Loan building.

Birmingham members assisting the chairman were Mrs. G. E. Benton and Mrs. J. A. Walker. Auxiliary members who assisted professional models in displaying fashions from "Hilda" included Mrs. K. R. Olsen, Mrs. L. E. Bildeau, Mrs. L. W. Dillman, Mrs. R. A. Wilson, and Mrs. H. E. Jones.

Proceeds from the affair will be used for the Nurse's Scholarship and other worthy projects supported by the auxiliary.

Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Chekaluck of Haynes street, Birmingham entertained Saturday evening at a dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Palicz of Detroit.
