National Leader Of Red Cross To Address Meet

Speaking on "75 Years of Service", the special assistant to the president of the American Red Cross will address guests at the annual dinner meeting of the Red Cross Oakland county chapter.

Leonard T. Lewis, 1450 Pilgrim, is general chairman of the event scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Wednesday at Pontiac Motor division executive dining rooms.

Assisting Lewis is Mrs. John W. Blanchard, of Lane Pine, Bloomfield Hills.

Winfrey's address on the 75-year history of the Red Cross will recall first stirrings of Red Cross activity in Oakland county in 1917. Birmingham led the way, according to Mrs. Mildred E. Bennett, director with the name of Miss Sarah Sly popping up in the records whenever big tasks faced early organizers.

fallen wires throughout the Royal Oak area.

Floyd Churchill, Wilbur Stoltz, Earl Jones and Richard Cook all of Royal Oak were operating the emergency amateur radio network in the Royal Oak and Southern Oakland county areas.

HOWARD ESTES of Birmingham had a portable amateur radio station ready to move into stricken areas.

Operations continued until the alert was cancelled.

Birmingham Civil Defense Office Director Dana Whitman said limited supply of pamphlets, "Learn to Shelters," and "Corner Room Shelters," have been obtained from the Michigan office of civil defense. Copies may be obtained without charge at his office Room 106, Municipal building.

YMCA To Hold Summer Program For Little Giants

The Birmingham YMCA is accepting registrations for the Little Giant program scheduled for Monday, Wednesday and Fridays from July 2 through August 15.

Boys and girls 6 and 7 years of age who are members of the YMCA are eligible to enroll for one or more weeks.

Mondays the children will receive swimming instructions at Saltwater pool and return to the YMCA for handicrafts.

Wednesdays will be spent in group games, singing, and handicrafts at the Y.

On Friday, July 27, August 3, and August 10 the group will visit Kensington park for boating and swimming. The group meets from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on the days scheduled.

Echel Dodier, junior in the college of education at Wayne University will serve as director of the Little Giant program. She will be assisted by Judy Mikulas, a senior at Southfield high school.

Purpose of the Little Giant program is to give the youngsters wholesome recreation and play with children of the same age.

Ruth Cortright Honored at U of M

Further honors went to Birmingham's Cortrights, family of speech experts, last Friday when Ruth, 19, was one of two women students to receive a debate award of $50 at the University of Michigan.

Ruth, of 2566 Northlawn, received the Eleanor Clay Ford award given each year to two women students who have done outstanding debate work at the University. Her mother received the same award as a U of M undergraduate.

Both Ruth and her sister, Helen, placed second in their final contests in the Hearst tournament of orators. Ruth was second in the eastern Michigan college division, and Helen had "a knife edge decision" in Detroit area high school finals, where she at first appeared to be the winner in scoring.

How Times Have Changed

Shains in 1956 is a far cry from Whitehead & Mitchell's "up-to-date drug store" of 1906, when one could select everything from "Paris Green" for plants to "proprietary medicines" . . . accurately compounded.

Paris Green

A. B. Anspacher's Best at the prices prevailing for the cheaper brands.

This Paris Green is pure, potent, and does not burn the plant on which it is sprayed.
