

MRS JOHN J. MOONEY

Newlywed Mooneys Honeymoon in Mexico

Gowned in bluish pink Italian silk, Lois Kathleen Elise walked down the aisle of Holy Name Church, Birmingham, Saturday to become the bride of John James Mooney before an altar decorated with pink and white flowers.

Father Edmund Schwager performed the nuptial mass in the presence of 300 guests.

PARENTS of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Peter Elise of Franklin Village and the Leo Hugh Mooneys of Farmington.

Lace applique embroidered in sequins and pearls fashioned the yoke of the bridal gown styled on princess lines with short sleeves. A cascade bustle provided back interest on the full skirt which extended into a cathedral train.

The bride's bluish pink illusion veil fell from a headpiece of lace over silk. Lily-of-the-valley, stephanotis and tiny pink roses made up her bouquet.

FIVE ATTENDANTS were dressed identically in white embossed organza over pale pink taffeta. The ballerina length dresses had short sleeves, bateau necklines and bustle backs.

Pink velvet ribbon circled the waistlines and was used in bows on the pink velvet daisy headpieces. Their shoes were pink silk shantung.

Colette Conn of Birmingham, maid of honor, was distinguished by the violets which centered her bouquet in addition to the pink daisies and babies' breath nose gays carried by the bridesmaids, Nancy White, Margaret Bartley, Kathleen Scanlan and Lucille Rothecker, all of Detroit.

ROBERT MOONEY served his brother as best man. Another brother, Gerry, along with the bride's brothers, Peter and Leonard Elise, and James Hickey and Joseph Dawson of Detroit, ushered guests.

A breakfast reception was held in Oakland Hills country club for 250 people. Mrs. Elise received before a fireplace banked with pink and white blossoms.

She wore a street length dress of rose beige lusterless satin embellished with small medallions of gold thread. Bronze beads adorned her hat of matching material.

THE BRIDEGROOM'S MOTHER chose a gold and black printed beige satin dress and black accessories.

When she left with her husband for trip to Mexico City and Acapulco, the new Mrs. Mooney was attired in a navy blue silk suit, matching accessories and white hat.

The newlyweds will reside in Burbank, Calif.

Whitfield-Willits Rites To Be Solemnized June 23

Donna Whitfield and John M. Willits, Jr., sophomores at Michigan State university, are planning a June 23 wedding.

The bride-elect's parents, the Donald B. Whitfields, are new residents of Bloomfield Hills, having moved to their West Harsdale road address recently from Toledo, Ohio.

JOHN is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Willits of Orlando, Fla., and has chosen his father to be best man for the Christ church, Cranbrook, ceremony.

The couple's engagement was announced at an open house last November in Toledo, before the family moved here.

Five attendants will precede Donna down the aisle. They are Janice Gibson of Morenci, maid of honor, and bridesmaids Tona Madison of Chicago, Ill., Marjorie Crandall of Midland and Barbara Peterson of Toledo. John's sister, Caroline, will be a junior bridesmaid.

USHERING guests will be William J. Walsh of Dexter, Ross A. Guire of Plainwell and Edward Katz, Gary Petty, Gerald Christopherson and Donald Worthley, all of Pontiac.

Rev. A. J. J. Gruetter will travel from Toledo to assist Rev. William C. Norvell in performing the marriage.

DONNA WHITFIELD
