Canoeing, Hiking, Movies Highlight YMCA Camp-Out

Birmingham YMCA was the hub of much activity last Friday afternoon. Many excited children were there, loaded down with their gear, ready to board the bus that took them to Camp Ohlyness near Holly, Mich. on an overnight campout. Many activities were enjoyed by the group. Among them were canoeing, hiking and movies. In order not to miss the season's first swim, many donned anything, from long underwear to blue jeans.

The boys attending from the North Adams area were, Bruce Radger, Phil Rowe, Bob Munchack, Dick O'Reilly, Ricky Snyder, Jim Yates, Squire Jaron, Greg Cowman, Jim Hatmaker, Tim and Bob Cowan.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnson of Nevada announce the birth of a son, Jason Scott, on May 5 at Oakwood hospital, Dearborn. He weighs 7 lbs., 2 oz.

The League of Women Voters Unit 4 held their monthly meeting Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. Fred Spornet of Hickory Heights. The topic for the evening was "Report from children's services committee."

Newcomers to Charing Cross are the East McGuires of Burnley drive. Their move was from Berkeley. They have two children, Sue, 14, attending Birmingham high and Paul, 7, a pupil at Pembroke. Mr. McGuire manages his own industrial tile company at Royal Oak and is a Mason. Among their interests are golf and gardening.

Down the road on Burnley is the Eugene Quakenbush family, who made their move from Wayne, Pa. Mr. Quakenbush is affiliated with the Dow Chemical company. Their children are, Glenn, 9, and Gary, 8, students at Terry, and little Martha who is 2.

Gary Quakenbush celebrated his eighth birthday on April 25, with a "spaceman" party. Everything from birthday cake to the hats and favors were of a spaceman theme. Those who attended were Doug and Jim Rutherford, Bill Craig and brother Glenn. Sister Martha viewed the party from a distance.

The Paul Kennedys moved into their new home on Meadowlane drive. Formerly of Philadelphia, Pa., they have a 2-year-old son, David. Mr. Kennedy is an engineer with Studebaker-Packard. Their hobbies are gardening and golf.

Newcomers to Thornwood are the Richard Wickhams and their 2-year-old daughter, Diana, who are residing on Oakhill drive. Mr. Wickham is with Fluor, Inc., Detroit, and belongs to the D.A.C.

The Robert Briskys are new residents of Henkawk drive. Their move was from East Grand Rapids. Mr. Brisky is an application engineer with Arthur B. Sonneborn Company, Detroit. They have three children, Bonnie, 8, and Barbara, 5, who attend Pembroke. At home is Holly, 3. The Briskys are photography and square dance enthusiasts.

Bonnie Brisky celebrated her eighth birthday Saturday. Twelve little girls from her second grade class at Pembroke School helped her celebrate. A highlight of the party was the "amateur hour" in which each displayed her talents.

Madam and gardening are among their favorite hobbies.

JOAN HEFFLIN

MSU Students Plan June Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Hefflin of Colar Hill drive, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Joan, to Herbert W. Kirby.

Herbert's parents are the Victor H. Kirbys of Maryland Blvd., Birmingham.

Joan and her fiancé are students at Michigan State university. They will graduate next month and are planning to be married June 16.

Scouts To Be Featured By Pierce PTA Tonight Receives Award At Conference

Pierce school scouts and cubs are invited to attend tonight's PTA meeting at 8 p.m. with their parents at the school. Featured will be boy and girl scouts in a candlelight service, first aid demonstration, song fest, skits and awards. Craft exhibits will represent scouts, brownies and cubs.

Flag bearers Pat Barcy and Mary Evans with color guards Valerie Moore, Wallace Kirkpatrick, Walter Dawson, Bob Bailey, Paul Swisher and Ronald Korpi will lead the opening of the scouting presentation as Margaret Evans plays the girl scout march on the piano.

Star, Fern, Irving Warwick and E. L. Tandrup will be supervising the boy scouting presentations. In the boys' court of awards, Robert Haefner, Herb Kettler and Gary Poole will be receiving star awards; Ross Warner, life award; and Bob Alexander and Thomas Moonen, first class awards. Second class awards will go to Bill Schoonmaker and Bill Henderson.

UNDER THE tutelage of Don Dawson and den mother Martha Korpi, a circus skit will be presented by den 10 of cub pack B-7. Participating are Mike Saylor, Richard Cipolla, Richard Howey, Gifford Crosby, Ronald Rowe, Ned Diendorf and Paul Melsen.

Mrs. Arthur McWood and Mrs. John Lane of the Birmingham branch, American Association of University Women, received regional article competition awards at the regional convention of the group held in the Drake hotel, Chicago, recently. The awards were accepted for Birmingham branch by Mrs. Howard Green, president.

Mrs. William Jackson, Mrs. Charles Layman, Mrs. Edward McCaul, and Mrs. Charles Shaw, all officers of Birmingham branch, also attended. At the conference emphasis was stressed on the need for teachers and the untapped reservoir of AAUW members, and others, who could, with accelerated training, become teachers.

Michigan groups received praise at the convention for their contribution of $15,750 to the Fellowship fund, the highest contribution of any single state in the region. Michigan now has 7,579 members, 57 branches.

SONGS will be sung by the girl scouting group with piano accompaniment by Carol Johnson, Bonnie Sue Renshaw and Sandra Kaechle. Mrs. Robert Forwood, neighbor.

CRRAFT displays are in charge of Mrs. George Kropf, assisted by Mrs. Robert Grand, Mrs. E. F. Barlow, Mrs. Ambert Peterson, Mrs. John Colner and Mrs. Irving Warwick.
