

Amateur Night Being Readied At Cranbrook

By KEN CAMERON

Mr. Bruce Coulter is making final preparations for Saturday's amateur night at Cranbrook. The show will consist of skits and musical numbers by students of Kingswood and Cranbrook. An annual feature of the show is a four-piece band, "The Star Dusters," which in past years has taken many of the awards given. Tickets will be sold at the door, and the show will start at 8 p.m. Reverend W. H. Young has introduced two of three chapel speakers slated to speak at Cranbrook during the days from May 15 to May 22. Tuesday, Rev. Canon Charles D. Braidwood, the rector of Grace church, Lapeer, Michigan, spoke on his work with the needy as canon minister of the Lapeer Field. This morning, Rev. Elmer B. Usher, rector of the Mariners church of Detroit, spoke on his work in the city missions. Next Tuesday, May 22, the Rev. Robert Prehse will be the speaker. He is the head of the Detroit Round Table of Catholics, Protestants and Jews.

Celebrate Victory

Celebrating their victory over all other 8th grades in the magazine subscription drive, Mrs. Richmond's Lawrence Tech group will attend a matinee performance of "Oklahoma" on May 25.

Southfield High Notes

At an honor assembly on May 24, fourteen graduates of Southfield's classes of 1954 and 1955 will receive retroactive awards. Attending from the class of 1954 will be Nora Lee Cobb who will receive an award in language and English, and Ann Jensen, social studies and English. Robert Muehal, Elaine Nash and Mary Rodeheffer will receive awards in social studies. Carol Starkey, Elba Johnson, Janice Rebbins, Maya Ritins, Shannon Bettison and Joyce Earl of the class of 1955 will receive social studies awards. Ellen Schreiber will receive awards in English and social studies, Nancy Leiminen in English, and Barbara Koenigsmark in social studies and language.

Southfield high school's PTSA will sponsor an afternoon supper at the Birmingham Community House following the senior prom June 2, from 12:30 a.m. to 2:30 a.m.

With cooperation from the staff at the Community House this will provide a place for the graduates to go in a group and enjoy a buffet supper with adequate chaperonage. Senior class members have tickets and reservations will have to be made early, since only 100 couples can be accommodated.

Honor Kingswood Student Cabinet For Service Work

Kingswood school, Bloomfield Hills, was among the winners of the thirty A. K. Oliver Citizenship Awards for 1956. It was announced today by Scholastic Magazine, national classroom periodical, and the National Association of Student Councils, Washington, D. C. The awards, of $50 each, were given for the best projects carried out by student groups in constructive citizenship and school or community service. The award for Kingswood school was made to the Student Cabinet, Nancy Wagner, chairman, for its many types of community service and welfare work.

Vaughan School To Hold Festival

"It's Great to Live in Michigan" is the theme of a pageant in which over 700 Vaughan elementary school children in Bloomfield Hills will celebrate Michigan week next Wednesday. At 1 p.m. children and teachers will present an outdoor festival of music, narration and pageantry, with pines and spruces for background. Every child will be in costume as the pageantry reveals the story of Michigan from 1620 through today.

Discuss Plans For June Picnic

To give the members of Alpha Omega Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Chi Omega new ideas in flower arrangement, the program for the evening meeting Tuesday, was presented by a member of the staff from a Pontiac florist. The group met at the home of Mrs. Robert Nelson, Pontiac. Working with flowers and containers from the florist, the speaker demonstrated basic floral arrangements as well as new designs. After the program, the arrangements were given to the members of the group. Plans for the annual picnic at which the husbands are to be guests were discussed. The event will take place June 12 at the home of Mrs. Harry Odie, Carey lane.

THE HIGHEST AWARD IN SCOUTING, the curved bar, was awarded Kingswood and Bloomfield high school girls. (From left) Sarah Horton, Carol Thomas and Sarah Snyder, all of troop 323. The presentation was made last evening at a buffet supper for the girls' parents at the home of the Dexter Hortons on Country Club drive.

Thetas to Hear Mrs. Howard Estes

Mrs. A. Appleford will open her Broadway boulevard home today with a 12:30 luncheon for all Birmingham area members of Kappa Alpha Theta. After lunch the group will hear Mrs. Howard R. Estes of Rivenock drive, discuss the purpose and need for volunteer workers at the Oakland County Infirmary. Colored slides will also be shown. Mrs. Appleford will be assisted by Mrs. Edward McCaul and Mrs. Robert Meek.

Rotary Anns Plan Luncheon Meeting

Annual meeting of the Rotary Anns will be at 1 p.m. luncheon Monday in the home of Mrs. William Bralley of Riverside drive, Birmingham. Mrs. Chester McCormick is in charge of arrangements assisted by Mrs. R. C. Nordstrom, Mrs. Lewis Morley and Mrs. Frank B. Webb.

Award Presented By Piety Hill DAR

Mrs. Clyde Bennett of Suffed avenue, on behalf of Piety Hill DAR, Tuesday presented a $25 defense bond to Cathy Dym of Clawson. Cathy, a senior at Clawson high school, was selected for a good citizenship award, and went on to be chosen first alternate in the state contest. The local chapter decided to give her this bond award as an extra recognition, and presented it at an honor assembly at the school.

Three Flags DARs Hear Convo Reports

Three Flags chapter of the DAR met Monday for a luncheon and business meeting at the Balfour road home of Mrs. Arthur Robitaille. Luncheon was served by co-hostesses, Mrs. Conrad Bloom and Mrs. George Snaddon after which Mrs. Richard Larges, incoming regent, read reports of the Continental Congress which was held in Washington last month. Other officers and committee chairmen gave their yearly reports, and plans were outlined for the coming year's activities.

A Fine Silk Suit

Ever since the Renaissance, the master-weavers of Italy have been famed for their superb silk. And this luxurious nubbed silk does full justice to the great Italian tradition! Justice is done too, in the meticulous tailoring. The combination gives you a suit of rare luxury and quality, both of which are evident on sight!
