

Velma Ruhly Makes Her Debut As New East Beverly Columnist

EAST BEVERLY—A new columnist for East Beverly area makes her bow this week. This is Velma (Mrs. J. King) Ruhly, 17395 Locherbie road, a Wayne university graduate. Nearly four years a resident, she is the mother of four... Pat, 15, who attends Birmingham high; Jim, 13, at Barnum; John, 11, and Bob, 6, both Beverly students.

She belongs to Delta Gamma, Chi, the Garden club and bowls with Junior Women's league. Somewhere there is also time to teach Sunday school at First Methodist church, Birmingham and serves as a director of Beverly Improvement. King, her husband, is sales manager at Michigan Chrome and Chemical. He is currently president of Beverly PTA and, with the boys, is active in scouting. Camping is a favorite activity with the entire family which will take them on a trip out west this summer.

Four Hurt

BLOOMFIELD—Four persons were injured Sunday afternoon in an auto accident on Long Lake and Telegraph roads, when Mrs. Margaret Senebrenner, of Menasha, Wis. collided with one driven by Charles Harden of Van Dyke.

Local WNFG Branch Cited For Civic Improvements

At the annual "blossomtime" luncheon meeting of Michigan division of Woman's National Farm and Garden association, East Beverly branch was presented an award of merit for outstanding achievement in the field of civic improvement during the year 1955-6.

The group has been responsible for the sale and planting of 113 trees, with a retail value of over $1,000, in this area of approximately one square mile.

Two flowering crab trees were planted at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs school and a blue spruce in the patio at Beverly school. Mrs. William Compton, president, received the award from Mrs. J. C. Roberts.

Also attending the luncheon at Devon Gables and a tea following at Mrs. Robert Skillman's house on Hickory Grove were Mrs. Henry Mika and Mrs. W. J. Deim.

Mr. and Mrs. William Compton attended the 30th anniversary banquet at the Community House. They served as host and hostess with the presidents of the other local branches and their husbands.

On May 7, Mrs. Walter E. Hentschke and daughter, Hona, 1215 Birdwood, traveled by train to William Woods college at Fulton, Mo., for a three-day visit. They were guests of Mrs. Hentschke's niece, Ellen Joan Sidorski of Locherbie.

Saturday, they attended a garden party, then a play. Ellen escorted them the next evening to the school's annual mothers' day banquet. Hona stayed in the Edwards Hall dormitory.

Last Monday, girl scout troop 338 and co-leaders, Mrs. Joseph Braden and Mrs. David Schutte served tea, punch and cookies to the girls' mothers. Attending the afternoon gathering at Mrs. Schutte's home on Beverly Circle, with their mothers, were Margaret Martin, Diane Jodelman, Judy Black, Katherine Karber, Katherine Braden, Nancy Herrmann, Cary Black, Barbara Byer, Janet Raley, Pat Harker, Pat Byrne, Donna Brown, Susan Whittlesey, Kathryn Shank, Sharyn Noye and Marjorie Schutte.

Many local residents attended the mother and daughter banquet at First Methodist church, Birmingham, last Thursday evening. Mrs. W. D. Macdonald of Buckingham accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Newman and granddaughters, Dawn and Janet, Newman. Bonnie with grandmother, Mrs. Amy Cray and mother Mrs. Ernest Cray of Locherbie; Mrs. Edward Crona and daughter, Debbie, of Sheridan; Mrs. R. V. Curie and Martha, of Locherbie, were also present.

Guests of the George Bowdens of Beechwood, for a mothers' day celebration last week-end were their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hien of Coldwater, Michigan and Residents Travel to Florida, Virginia, Virgin Isles, Etc.

Mrs. Alfred Gade and daughter, Mary Lou, Warwick road recently returned from a motor trip to Florida, visiting at Palm Beach and Daytona Beach.

Fred Gade, 17, the Gade's son, appeared on the W.W.I.V. "Quiz-n-show Saturday as a representative of the Shrine high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Gariepy of Warwick are back home after visiting with friends in Cincinnati, O. and Louisville, Ky. A former roommate of Mrs. Gariepy will attend St. Mary's, Notre Dame, Ind., was their Louisville hostess.

Newcomers to the area are Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Harbage and children Bonnie Jeanne, 11, and Greg, 6, students at Beverly school who make their home on Sylvan lane. Mr. Harbage who is with the Koppay Tool and Die Company, Ferris, Ind., attended Wayne university while Mr. Harbage attended California State Teacher's college at California, Penn. Music, sewing, golf and bowling are their major hobbies. They are members of St. James Episcopal church, Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Miller are currently visiting their daughter, Mrs. S. I. Whittlesey, Hillcrest drive, enroute from Florida to their home in Pittsford, Mass.

The lure of the open road was too great for Mrs. David Wesley and Mrs. Fred Schlorf, East Beverly, visited historic Williamsburg and Charlottesville, Va. Highlight of their stay at Williamsburg and Charlottesville, Va. Highlight of their stay at Williamsburg was the musicale at the Governor's palace, where music of colonial times was played by musicians in costume. Helen Boatwright, a soprano who has sung with the Boston symphony, was featured as was an unusual piano and harpsichord duo. Returning from Williamsburg, Mrs. Wesley went to Dundee, N. Y. with daughter, Barbara, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Souder. They attended the wedding of a nephew, James Treat, to Joan Dibble of that city.

West Beverly branch of WNFG will meet next Thursday at 1 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Joseph Curley on Bedford road. Mrs. Arthur DeRosier, Mrs. Henry Guenther and Mrs. M. E. Beukema will assist as hostesses for the day. There will be a short business meeting, an idea discussion and an exchange of ideas on gardening. Each member attending is requested to bring a slip or plant for exchange.

The Contemporary Study group will hold its meeting May 28 at the Oakland drive home of Mrs. E. B. Hall. Mrs. Russell Maury will present a book review.
